ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

In the name of Allah, Most Gracious, Most Merciful. My first and foremost thanks's giving is for the almighty, the owner and the creator of the whole universe, without whose help and guidance, nothing comes into existence and who bestowed upon me the courage, patience and strength to embark upon the work and carry it to its completion.

My special thanks and gratitude to University Grants Commission (UGC) finding me fit enough for conferring its Fellowship on me under its Faculty Improvement Programme.

I am greatly indebted to Aligarh Muslim University for agreeing to provide research facilities and accepting wholeheartedly my candidature for Doctorate Degree in Political Science as a Teacher Candidate.

My special thanks is also due to Professor Murtaza Khan, Ex Dean, Social Science Faculty and erstwhile Chairman, Political Science Department.

I am thankful to my parent institution, N.R.E.C College, Khurja (Bulandshahr), and Ch. Charan Singh University for granting me timely assistance and relief without which pursuance of research could not have been imagined.

I am thankful to Dr. Iftekhar Ahmed whose able guidance at all the time helped me to bring this work at final stage.

My sincere thanks are extended to Dr. Asma Parveen, Reader Department of Psychology, Aligarh Muslim University for her valuable suggestions which helped me in clearing up many obscurities and ambiguities at various stages of the study.
I am obliged to my friends for undertaking the arduous task of data collection with me and co-operating at various stages of this mammoth task.

Last but not the least my thanks to my family members whose blessings and moral support helped me in finishing my thesis.
