ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I express my sincere and whole hearted thanks to Dr. R. Satheesh, Reader, School of Environmental Sciences, Mahatma Gandhi University, Kottayam for suggesting the problem as well as for guidance, constant encouragement and constructive suggestion rendered during the entire course of this work.

My heartfelt gratitude is due to Dr. A. P. Thomas, Director, School of Environmental Sciences for offering facilities and constant encouragement throughout the course of my study.

I express my sincere thanks to Dr. P. K. K. Nair, Director, Environmental Resources Research Centre (ERRC), Peroorkada, Thiruvananthapuram for providing me necessary advice and extending the facilities at ERRC to carryout the work during my deputation period of two years.

I am indebted to Adv. P. K. Narayana Panicker, General Secretary, and Shri. G. Sukumaran Nair, Assistant Secretary, Management of Nair Service Society (NSS) Changanachery for support and constant encouragements rendered to visualize my long cherished ambition.

I am grateful to Shri. P. R. Keshava Chandran, Principal, S.V.R.N.S.S College, Vazhoor and Dr. C. Gopinathan Pillai, N.S.S. Hindu College, Changanachery, my colleagues and non-teaching staff, who have helped and supported me throughout the period.

I have to place on record with gratitude, the valuable assistance provided by Prof. Kolandavelu, Botany Dept., Anna Arts College, Namakkal, Tamil Nadu, Mr. Ravi Sankar, Research Scholar, Madras Christian College, Tambaram, Chennai and Dr. G. Perumal, Thiruvaroo, Tamil Nadu during the collection of study materials in Tamil Nadu.

My deep sense of gratitude is due to Shri. Ramesh B. Nair, Head, Dept. of Computer Science, Rubber Research Institute of India (RRII), Kottayam for his help in the statistical analysis of the data. I remember with gratitude the valuable assistance and suggestions given by Dr. Saji T. Abraham, Senior Scientist, Germplasm Dept, during the finalization of the thesis.

A single word of thanks will not bring my whole hearted feelings to Mr. John C. Mathew, Mr. H Vijith, Mr. P.G. Rejith, Mr. B. Ajaykumar, Mr. V.P Sylas and all other staff and students of the School of Environmental Sciences, Mahatma Gandhi University, Kottayam for their whole hearted co-operation and support in bringing the thesis into the visual spectrum.

I am very much indebted to my husband P. V. A. Nair, children Chitra and Abhishek for the affection and moral support given for the completion of the work successfully.
I am thankful to the University Grants Commission, New Delhi for the award of the Teacher Fellowship under FIP scheme during IX\textsuperscript{th} plan period.

I wish to record my heartfelt thanks to Mrs. Aniamma Kurian for the neat typing of the thesis.

Finally, I owe my sincere thanks to one and all who have helped me directly or indirectly for the fulfilling this long cherished ambition.

Above all, I am grateful to the grace showered upon me by the God Almighty during this endeavour.
