SELECT BIBLIOGRAPHY
A. MANUSCRIPTS AND UNPUBLISHED MATERIALS.

The majority of Dreiser's manuscripts reside in the Dreiser collection of the University of Pennsylvania Library, Philadelphia. Dreiser personally deposited many of his papers there and they were added to after his death by Helen Dreiser. Included are manuscripts of the majority of his books; galley and page proof; first subsequent and foreign editions of the novels; correspondencee, notes and worksheets; clippings files; portraits and busts by various artists. The manuscript of Sister Carrie presented to H.L. Mencken resides in the N.Y. public Library. The manuscript of Dawn resides in the Library of Indiana University, Bloomington.

B. PRIMARY SOURCES

(Arranged in order of publication. Reference in the text are not necessarily to the first editions. Full information about the editions used will be found in the references.)

1. NOVELS

Sister Carrie. New York : Doubleday Page, 1900

The Genius. New York : John Lane 1915

An American Tragedy. New York : Boni & Liveright, 1925

The Bulwark. Garden City : Doubleday, 1946

The Stoic. Garden City : Doubleday 1947

2. STORIES AND OTHER COLLECTIONS

Free and Other Stories. New York : Boni & Liveright, 1918

Typhoon. New York : Boni & Liveright, 1926

Chains. New York : Boni & Liveright, 1927

Fine Furniture. New York : Random House, 1930

The Best Short Stories of Theodore Dreiser. Ed. by Howard Fast, Cleveland : World, 1947

3. PLAYS

(Arranged in Order of Publication)

Plays of the Natural and the Supernatural. New York : John Lane, 1916

The Hand of the Potter. New York : Boni & Liveright, 1918

4. POETRY

Moods, Cadenced and Declaimed. New York : Boni & Liveright, 1926 [a limited edition with 176 poems].

The Aspirant. New York : Random House, 1929

Epitaph, A Poem. New York : Heron Press, 1929

5. AUTOBIOGRAPHY:

(Arranged to provide the best chronological sequence of Dreiser’s life):

Dawn. New York : Liveright, 1931

(The Edition beyond the 7th appear as Newspaper Days.)

A Traveler at Forty. New York : Century, 1913

A Hoosier Holiday. New York : John Lane, 1916

6. LETTERS

7. NON - FICTION

(Arranged in Order of Publication)

The Carnegie Works at Pittsburgh, Privately printed at Chelsea. New York :
(Written before 1910).

Life, Art and America, reprinted from The Seven Arts, February 1917.

(Dreiser’s own statement of his philosophy. As he puts it : "My intention is solely to present my reactions to a world that is as yet completely immersed in my story.").

America is Worth Saving. New York : Modern Age Books, 1941

To The Writers League of America. Hollywood : May 13, 1941,

8. FOREWORDS AND INTRODUCTIONS.

Introduction The Living Thoughts of Thoreau. New York: Longmans, Green and Company, 1939

C. MAGAZINE ARTICLES

(Arranged in Order of Publication)

“Great Problem of Organization” The Cosmopolitan.

“Edmund Clarence Stedman at Home” Vumsey’s Magazine XX (March 1899).

“Bondage.” Ainsleses’s Magazine, II (April 1899), 239.

“As a Realist Sees It”, The New Republic, V, 60 (December 1915) 202-204.

“America and the Artist.” Nation CXX (April 15, 1925), 423-425. [Spring Book Section.]

“My Favorite Fiction Character”, The Bookman, LXIII (April 1926), 175.

“Statement of Belief.” The Bookman, LXVIII (September 1928), 25

“Intellectual Unemployment”. New Freeman, II (March 1931), 616-617

“Free the Class War Prisoners in Boss Jails.” Daily worker, May 19, 1931

“The Titan.” New Masses, VII (September 1931), 7-8

“Individualism and the Jungle.” New Masses, VII (January 1932), 3-4

“Challenge to the Creative Man.” Common Sense, II ((November 1933), 7-8

“The Myth of Individuality”, The American Mercury, XXXI (March 1934), 337-342

“I Find the Real American Tragedy”, Mystery, XI, 2 (February 1935), 9-11, 88-90

“Mark Twain: Three Contacts”, Esquire, IV, 4 (October 1935), 22, 162-162B
"Mark the Double Twain", The English Journal, XXIV, 8 (October 1935), 615-627

"Epic Technologists Must Plan". National Epic Magazine, I, 2 (June 1936), 12

"If Man is Free, So is All Matter." Forum and Century, SCVIII (December 1937), 301-304

"Good and Evil." North American Review, CCXLVI (Autumn 1938), 67-86

"Portrait of a City Editor." Encore, lv, 21 (October 1943), 424-431.

SECONDARY SOURCES

A. BIBLIOGRAPHY

B. BIOGRAPHY

Hakutani, Yoshinobu. Young Dreiser. Fairleigh Dickinson University Press. 1980

Also the following reference sources to get an overview of Dreiser's Life :

Dictionary of Literary Biography.

Contemporary Authors Cumulative Index.

Twentieth Century Authors.

Encyclopedia of World Literature in the Twentieth Century.

Films on Dreiser

SISTER CARRIE. film 1952, dir by William Wyler.

JENNIE GERHARDT. film 1933, dir by Marion Gering.

AN AMERICAN TRAGEDY. 1925 - A Place in the Sun, 1951, dir by George Stevens.
History of American Literature

C. CRITICISM

1. BOOKS

SELECT BIBLIOGRAPHY [ 223 ]

2. ARTICLES

——. "Some Correspondence with Theodore Dreiser." General Magazine and Historical Chronicle (University of Pennsylvania) LIII (Summer 1951), 237-252.

——. “The Dreiser Bugaboo.” Seven Arts August 1917.

——. “That was New York : The Life of An Artist.” New Yorker (April 17, 1948): 64-70.

Sherman, Stuart P. "The Naturalism of Mr Dreiser." Nation (December 2, 1915) : 648-651.

Smith, Edward H. "Dreiser—After Twenty Years" Bookman LIII (March 1921) : 27-39.

C. GENERAL AND MISCELLANEOUS

Dos, Passos, John. The Theme is Freedom, New York, Dodd, Mead, 1956.

Lowenberg, Bert J. “Darwinism Comes to America,” Mississippi Valley Historical Review, XXVIII (1941), 339-369.

