ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

There is no word in my vocabulary, which can satisfactorily express my indebtedness to my esteemed research supervisor, Dr. Sunil Kumar Sadhukhan who had been a constant source of inspiration, information, philosophical and technical guidance. I deeply acknowledge his valuable guidance and association in completing thesis.

My respected teacher Dr. Shyamali Sahukhan, too has a constant source of inspiration and information. She corrected and reread the whole thesis. I wholeheartedly acknowledge her inspiration, suggestions and assistance.

Dr. Sunando Bandopadhyay, Head of the Department of Geography, University of Burdwan has draft and edited thesis. I am thankful to him. Sri Deb Prakash Pahari, Scientific Officer, Department of Geography, University of Burdwan have tabulated and corrected different points. I express my gratitude to him for sparing his valuable time in assisting me.

My parents Sri Bipul Kr. Guchhait and Bangashri Guchhait have inspired me a lot from the very beginning. I am also grateful to them.

I am also grateful to D. Mukherjee for their valuable assistance. I would also like to express my thanks to my brothers Anindya Sadhukhan, Samit Guchhait and Swarup Guchhait for their constant source of inspiration.

Finally, this thesis is dedicated to my guides esteemed teachers Dr. Sunil Kr. Sadhukhan and Dr. Shyamali Sadhukhan as an inadequate expression of filial gratitude.
