List of Photo Plates

Plate 1: Collection of soil sample from an orchard at Dayapur.

Plate 2: Interaction with a honey-collector who became a victim of tiger attack inside the forest.

Plate 3: Mangrove forest subjected to inundation during high tide.

Plate 4: Exposed respiratory roots of the mangrove vegetation during low tide.

Plate 5: Herd of deer busy grazing within Sajnekhali Reserve Forest.

Plate 6: Monkey — and endangered species of Sundarban.

Plate 7: Does the bird apprehend of a silent spring in Sundarban?

Plate 8: A crocodile waiting for prey in the wetland of Sajnekhali Reserve Forest.

Plate 9: LEPAS colony — Molluscs adhering to a pillar at Frazerganj.

Plate 10: A red crab coming out of its hole at Ganga Sagar sea beach.

Plate 11: Interaction with the woman who migrated from Bangladesh in search of occupation.

Plate 12: Children of the poor families — least interested to go to school.

Plate 13: Conversion of agricultural land to fishing pond (bheri) for shrimp culture.
Plate 14: Lock gate assuring regulated supply of water from the creeks to the fishing pond.

Plate 15: A good catch of shrimp for commercial purpose at the cost of biodiversity.

Plate 16: Close up view of a shrimp at Namkhana.

Plate 17: Mechanized fishing boat — effective enough in narrow creeks amidst the mangrove forest.

Plate 18: Construction of the fishing trawlers at Kakdwip fishing port.

Plate 19: Small scale fishing with individual effort of the poor people at Ganga Sagar.

Plate 20: Interaction with fisherwomen at Ganga Sagar.

Plate 21: Fish cum paddy farmers ventilating their grievances.

Plate 22: Interaction with a fisherman cum farmer at Frazerganj.

Plate 23: Transport of wooden logs following unauthorized slashing of casurina plantations from the Frazerganj sea beach.

Plate 24: Non degradable plastic bags dumped by the tourists on the sea beach at Ganga Sagar.

Plate 26: Colony adjacent to reserve forest at Bakkhali.