ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This present work though focused on the legal control of cyber crime, involves a substantial study of the basic features of criminal jurisprudence, relating to criminology, policy on crime of political governments and criminal laws of different national legislatures. Moreover the cyber space being an emerging and growing phenomenon since the last quarter of 20th century, the nature and characteristics of this technical extension of real world have been made a part of the study. This virtual space is intangible abstract and highly symbolic in nature, so the features of this high-tech phenomenon must be known to the legal community, law enforcement agencies and all others concerned with the legal control of criminal activities here in virtual world.

This study also involves various national and international attempts through conventions, seminars, resolutions, survey reports, recommendations to deal with the peculiar issues like criminal liability, jurisdiction, human right violations, intellectual property rights etc. So this study though relates to cyber crimes only still has had to address many fundamental issues of criminal law and human rights, and technical innovations. And this vast work actually could not be addressed without the active and wise guidance supervision and advice of my guide and supervisor Dr. Abul Hasem Mondal LL.M.Ph.D. Professor, Department of Law, University of Burdwan Golapbag.

This research work has been sponsored by the University of Burdwan under the Research Fellowship Scheme. And I could not carry on this study without the financial support regularly granted to me by the Vice-Chancellor, of this University. And as such I duly acknowledge the favour extended to me by him.

In fact the present work has been made possible through the active co-operation suggestions advice and material references given by all the respectable teaching personalities of this department especially I have been greatly motivated and assisted by Dr. B. N. Chaudhury, (LL.M.Ph.D) Ex. Professor of Law, in this department, Dr. S. S. Singh LL.M.Ph. D.- Professor of Law, Dr. S. S. Sadhu LL.M.Ph.D. Professor of law, Dr. D. K. Das LL.M.Ph.D. lecturer in law, Dr. S. S. Chatterjee LL.M.Ph.D.

The librarian Mr. Golam Ambia M.Lib. has personally motivated me in all respects throughout the research work. The Central Library Golapbag and the computer science seminar Library have also extended full co-operation in my work. The non-teaching staff including Head Clerk Mr. Shamvu Nath Chatterjee have cordially extended all material co-operations to me in all respect.

The officers and the staff of the Faculty Council, Arts Law Department Rajbati and the Finance and Development section officers and staff also have cordially considered and granted all facilities to me in this work.
My respectable teacher and secretary of the Faculty of Arts Dr. P. Acharya LL.M.Ph.D. and this staff and officers have been cordial affectionate and helpful to me and my research work all along.

In this work I must mention the name of the Hazra law college, University of Calcutta, where I took the opportunity to consult many reference books in the library. I must mention the material support offered by Dr. J. K. Das lecturer in law, University of Calcutta, Hazra Law College. I also mention here the access to the huge resources of the American Information Resource Centre and British Council both in Kolkata. I also took the help of some other libraries like National Library Alipore, City College Library Kolkata, Library of C. U. Law College etc. I also duly acknowledge the assistance co-operation extended to me by Sri S. Sarkar LL.M.Ph. D. Deputy Secretary, Law and Judicial Department Government of West Bengal and the Cyber Crime Cell officials Lalbazar Kolkata. And also I am indebted to the practising advocates of Alipore Police Court and Alipore Judges Court Kolkata who supplied me with some material information about cyber crimes in and around Kolkata.

I also remember many other personalities from all walks of life being teachers, computer professionals, Cyber Cafe owners software and hardware experts, police officials lawyers, Judicial officers, etc. who helped me in many ways providing valuable information, materials and clues on Cyber Crime issues.

I again express my indebtedness to the head of the institution.

I am also grateful to those eminent persons who have taken the pain to supply me with various valuable and material information suggestions and opinions through an appeal in the form of a Questionnaire. Some of them are:

1) Smt. Anindita Bhattacharya – GNIIT (Kolkata)
3) Sri Bikas Mukhopadhyaya – MCA. Ph. D. (Computer Science) (0342-2557104)
4) I. Banerjee – PGDCA. CNE. MCP. CCNA. (9830640128)
5) Smt. Ranjita Sarkar – B.Sc. MCA. (Kolkata)
6) Sri Sangram Keshari Das– BE (REC)– VSNL KOL-54; 2333-6654.
7) Sri Sanjoy Sharma– THE CMC Ltd., 28 Camac Street, Kol-16.
8) Mr. Shiv Ratan– M. Tech– Deputy General Manager (I T) BSNL– CTO Building Kol -1.(2242 0755)

And some others.

The observations and suggestions so collected from them have been included in this work as valuable materials. It is observed that new types of Cyber Crimes are being committed to harass especially the women.

However as a whole I am grateful to all the persons who have kindly responded to my appeal through the questionnaire.

I again express my deep gratitude to the head of the institution.

Sundaram pal Ghoshal
30.11.2005