CONTENTS

LIST OF TABLES

LIST OF FIGURES

LIST OF ABBREVIATIONS

CHAPTER I: INTRODUCTION

1.1 Conceptualization of the term minority ........................................... 02
1.2 Minority communities in India ......................................................... 06
1.3 Muslim community in the world ....................................................... 09
1.4 Muslim community in India ............................................................ 11
1.5 Images of Muslims and Islam in the media ....................................... 18
1.6 Origin of the conflict ........................................................................ 26
1.7 Serial issues related to Coimbatore Bomb Blasts - A short description ................................................................. 29
1.8 Excerpts of the First Information Report (FIR) about communal violence against the two major groups ......................................................... 30
1.9 Bomb Blasts and their consequences ................................................ 33
1.10 Statement of the problem ................................................................ 36

CHAPTER II: MEDIA COVERAGE OF MINORITY RELATED CONFLICTS

2.1 Media coverage of minority related conflicts in the global media........ 37
2.2 Media coverage of minority related conflicts in the Indian media....... 44

CHAPTER III: REVIEW OF LITERATURE

3.1 Studies on the role of media in representing Islam and Muslims ................................................................. 50
3.2 Studies on news framing of media ...................................................... 57
3.3 Studies of media coverage on Muslim related conflicts Pre 9/11........ 59
3.4 Studies related to the media coverage of Muslims Post 9/11............. 72
3.5 Media coverage on the conflict related to Coimbatore Bomb Blasts… 79

CHAPTER IV : METHODOLOGY
4.1 Aim of the study ……………………………………………………… 86
4.2 Objectives of the study ………………………………………………… 87
4.3 Hypotheses of the study ………………………………………………… 88
4.4 Theoretical framework ………………………………………………… 89
4.5 Method of the study …………………………………………………… 90
4.5.1 Content analysis 90
4.5.1.1 Operational framework of the factors and variables ……………… 91
4.5.2 Discourse analysis …………………………………………………… 95
4.5.3 In-depth Interview …………………………………………………. 98
4.5.3.1 Participants of the In-depth Interview………………………… 98
4.5.3.2 Profile of Participants of the In-depth Interview… 98
4.6 Period of the study ……………………………………………………. 100
4.7 Criteria for the selection of newspapers…………………………….. 101
4.8 Profile of the newspapers ……………………………………………. 101
4.9 Unit of analysis………………………………………………………… 103
4.10 Data collection……………………………………………………….. 103
4.11 Tools used for Analysis …………………………………………… 104
4.12 Reliability and Validity……………………………………………... 104
4.13 Limitations of the study……………………………………………... 104

CHAPTER V : DATA PRESENTATION AND ANALYSIS
5.1 Descriptive and Inferential Data analysis
5.1.1 Nature and intensity of the coverage……………………………… 106
5.1.2 Authenticity and credibility………………………………………... 124
5.1.3 Frames provided by the mainstream media…………………… 134
5.1.4 Discourse of the news story………………………………………. 145
5.1.5 Role of headline in framing the conflict………………………… 152
5.1.6 Significance of photographs and graphics……………………… 169
5.1.7 Agenda of the newspapers……………………………………….. 182
5.1.8 Association between the conflict and news stories .............................. 195
5.1.9 Space allocation of conflict stories .................................................. 204
5.1.10 Yearwise newspaper analysis related to the overall coverage ...... 210

5.2 Discourse Analysis
  5.2.1 Analysis of noun phrases in conflict stories ................................. 213
  5.2.2 Analysis of noun in conflict stories ............................................. 222

5.3 In-Depth Interview ........................................................................... 230

5.4 Hypotheses Testing ........................................................................... 247

CHAPTER VI : FINDINGS, CONCLUSION AND RECOMMENDATIONS
  6.1 Findings of the Descriptive and Inferential Data analysis ............ 249
  6.2 Findings of the Discourse analysis .................................................. 254
  6.3 Findings of the In-depth interview ................................................... 256
  6.4 Conclusion ....................................................................................... 258
  6.5 Suggestions and recommendations ................................................... 262
  6.6 Scope for further research ............................................................... 265

REFERENCES

LIST OF PUBLICATIONS

APPENDIX