ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It is a pleasant feeling to have accomplished this thesis, which, in fact, is just one part of the continuous process of growing and revitalizing myself academically, intellectually and personally. However, it would have been impossible without the contribution of some people at every turn of this process.

First of all, I would like to thank my guide, Dr. Smt. Smita S. Patil, for her excellent guidance, encouragement and the patience with which she improved upon the student in me and enabled me to organize my thoughts logically.

I am thankful to Smt. Vinaya Kelkar, Head, Department of English of K.T.H.M. College, Nashik for her constant encouragement. My special thanks are due to Dr. A.S. Ashturkar, Dr. C.M. Deshmane, Prof. Yogesh Gangurde, Prof. Tushar Patil, Prof. R.V. Odhekai, Prof. R.S. Hire, Prof. S. J. Nikam, Prof. S.S. Rajole, Prof. A.J. Mhasde for their valuable help and motivation to complete the thesis.

I would like to express my deep and sincere gratitude to our Principal Dr. D.M. Dhondge, K.T.H.M. College, Nashik, Maharashtra.

I am thankful to the students and the teachers in the Departments of English in the colleges of Nashik district, Maharashtra for their participation to answer the grammar and vocabulary tests of my research project.

I am also very grateful to my friends Prof. A.A. Gaikwad, Prof. H. M. Kshirsagar, Prof. V.G. Kamankar, Prof. D. H. Shinde and Prof. B.L. Gadakh for their help, cooperation and inspiration.

Finally I owe much indebted to my wife Mrs. Surekha for her sharing all household duties during my study. My heartfelt thanks are due to my mother Bhamabai, brother Bhausaheb, son Abhishek and daughter Akanksha who have been the chief source of inspiration for the study. I remain ever grateful to them for their patience, tolerance, sacrifice and understanding.
