ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

It gives me immense pleasure to acknowledge the help and support I received from a number of persons in carrying out this project and in preparing the Ph.D report. It is, in fact, very difficult for me to name all those persons but I feel happy to convey my gratitude to at least a few of them.

I am highly grateful to my Research Director Prof. L. Venugopal Reddy, who is presently the Vice-Chancellor of Andhra University, Visakhapatnam, for sparing his valuable time in providing excellent guidance in preparing the thesis in spite of his busy schedule. In fact, when he was in the School of Management of S.K. University, Anantapur, he inspired and initiated me into this Ph.D programme, but for whose co-operation, this work would not have seen the light of the day.

I am thankful to Prof. R.K. Mishra, Director, Institute of Public Enterprise, Hyderabad for his encouragement and also for giving his valuable ideas relating to the topic of research which helped me a lot in gaining adequate insights into the research problem.

I express my sincere thanks to Prof. K. Rama Krishna Reddy, Head and Dean, Sri Krishnadevaraya Institute of Management, S.K. University, Anantapur who has given a lot of co-operation at different stages of this work.
I take this opportunity to place on record my gratitude to Dr. K. Anjaneyulu, Senior Faculty Member, Bhadruka College of Commerce, Hyderabad who has assisted me in the collection of data and also in the preparation of the earlier drafts of the thesis. I also make a mention of the help extended by Dr. T.S. Rasool Saheb, Asst. Director, A.P. State Council of Higher Education, Hyderabad in preparing this report. I convey my thanks to him.

I am particularly thankful to the managements of the select organizations covered in this study for their excellent co-operation in providing the necessary information and also the management respondents for giving their valuable time to conduct interviews through the questionnaire and I am also thankful the respondent employees for their co-operation in the questionnaire canvassing during my field work.

I am grateful to S.K. University, my Alma Mater, for providing me this opportunity to do Ph.D in the Institute of Management and also for allowing me to make use of its library.

I am very much obliged to Sri A. Giridhar, I.A.S., Sri Rajeswar Tiwari, I.A.S., Sri Ajay Mishra, I.A.S., the successive commissioners and Smt. Poonam Malakondaiah, I.A.S., the present Commissioner in the Transport Department, Government of Andhra Pradesh for their encouragement and also their co-operation given to me from time to time during the entire period of my study.
It is a pleasure to convey my appreciation and thanks to my colleagues in our department for the kind support and encouragement given to me in different forms. I particularly make a mention of the facilitation made by Sri S. Venkateswara Rao, Deputy Transport Commissioner, Visakhapatnam and also his staff during my frequent visits to Visakhapatnam in connection with my meetings with my Research Director.

Last but not least I am highly thankful to my wife Smt. Radha Rani, whose patience and ungrudging co-operation have gone a long way in allowing me to go with my work very smoothly and quietly. It is because of her continuous prodding and positive disposition, the work, though delayed a little because of my office responsibilities, could ultimately be completed.
