“Let us dare to dream gentleman, and then perhaps we may learn the truth”

August Kekule

There are lot many ingredients for the successful accomplishment of an endeavor. The first and the foremost is torchbearer who enlightens your path, gives a right directive to achieve the same. I was fortunate to have Dr. R.R Saxena, Professor, Department of Education, Jyotiva Rao Phoole, University, Jaipur, as my supervisor and Dr. R. S. Mishra, Principal Cambridge Court College of Education, Jaipur as my co-supervisor. They gave me opportunity to pursue my Ph.D. studies. I take this opportunity to express my deep sense of gratitude to them. They were always with me with their innovative ideas, firm and clear convictions and solution to almost every problem. They gave me constructive criticisms as well as rewarding praises, which motivated and trained me to improve the quality of my research. They have also been great role model and I undoubtedly intend to use what I have learned from them I move forward in my career. With their unique attitude to seeing a research proposal, and an extreme sense of patience, they inculcated a research attitude in a novice like me the true insight of an Educationist. I owe it to them for successful completion of my Ph.D. research project.

I am also indebted to the Registrar, Suresh Gyan Vihar University, Jaipur, Shri Narhari Sharma, IAS [Retd.] for his consistent guidance and constant confidence throughout the work.

I wish to express my sincere and respectful thanks to Sh. Sunil Sharma, Chair Person, Dr. Sudhanshu, Chief Mentor, Prof (Dr.) B. V. Somasekhar, President, Maj. Gen. B. K. Varma, Pro-
President and Professor S. C. Dwivedi, Dean (Research), Suresh Gyan Vihar University, for their constant support and valuable suggestions.

Heartfelt thanks are due to my colleagues namely Mr. Vinod Soni and Mr. Rakesh Kumar Jat for their valuable suggestions, help and moral support during project work.

Last but not the least, I am very grateful to my parents, my elder brothers, my wife Mrs. Rajni Singh, my son Shresth Singh, my daughter Shreya Singh, my nephew Monish Singh and my niece Meghali Singh for their love and affection and courage given to me.
