REFERENCE

1. K. O. Joshi, Shaikshanik Tatvagyan (Rajkot), Shikshan Shastrabhavan, Saurashtra Uni. 2000, page no. 118-119

3. EJAN – Page 229

10. EJAN... Page no 320.

2. Vanaraj Damor- “Gujarat Rajya Ma Sarva Shresth Award Vijeta Shri Babubhai Panochana Vyakti Vishesh no Abhyas” (Unpublished Post Graduare Thesis Department of Physical Education. Post Graduate Bhavan – Hemchandracharya North Gujarat University, Patan, 2008)

17. Fedrick and Mary - The Philosophy of gen Jacks Rosey And Application For American Physical Education; Completed Research in Health Physical Education and Recreation Volume-6, 1964 page No-39.

20. Jerry 1987 a biography of John H. Scolionos with emphasis on his unique philosophy of coaching and teaching his exemplary philosophy of life.

21. Butt 1989 presented a study to describe four middle school physical education teachers self reported experiences.

22. Mays 1989 - A case study approach was utilized in the investigation of the beliefs and teaching practices of selected physical education teachers.

23. Yearsley 1988 wrote the life history of C. Rodney Kimball, emphasizing his professional career as the head athletic Trainer at B.Y.U. extensive interviews with Rodney Kimball.

24. Sivaram Krishnan while studying Sunil Gavaskar’s life, career and contributions to cricket, has extensively used in his methodology as interview.

25. Flake 1986 study was conceived as an attempt to discover and synthesize data pertaining to life and professional endeavors of William Ralph Laporte.

26. Charles I. Barajan undertook the case study on Mr. V.J. Philips who was an Indian hockey player.

27. Carmon presented a biography of Jose De J Clarke Flores with emphasis on his leadership in sports and most important contribution at National and International levels.

29. Dusek (1981) presented a biography of Marie Provaznik with particular emphasis upon her contributions to Physical Education.

30. David (1986) compared selected characteristics of more successful adventure leaders with those of less successful leaders.
32. Balke 1995 described and analysed the staff development practices of 3 Physical Education resources.
33. Dorothy Kangas A case historical study on Joan Benoit Samuelson.
34. Krishnakumar 1992 conducted a case study on K. Raghunathan an International athlete from Kerala. Raghunathan was born in a low class family.
36. J.D.Vescori et al (2006) studied the positional characteristics of division I college female soccer players conducted tests on height, body mass.
39. In accordance with Davis et al., Goalkeepers in football were taller and heavier than outfield players.
40. Swapan K. Dey et.al. (2010) having conducted study on one hundred fifty (150) male Indian footballers of six different national clubs of India including three from Kolkata.
42. David Pears (2007) of University of Bedfordshire conducted a case study on a 26 year old semi-professional soccer player.
43. Victor study was to present a biography of the life and personal career of Daniel Carter Beard - 1850-1941.
44. Historical, biographical analytical and interpretive methods were utilized to analysed Bread’s life and career. In employing these methods documentaiy.
BOOKS:
1) Oswal, G.S : Shiksha Manovignaagn, New Delhi – Vani Prakashan 1993
2) Andharia, Ravindra, Adyayan, Adyapan na Manovignan, Ahmedabad : Varishen Prakashan 2004
4) Kamlesh M.L. Krida Manovignan, New Delhi, Metropolitan Book Company, 1984
6) Joshi K. O. Shaikshanik tatvagan, Rajkot : Shikshan Shastra Bhavan, Saurashtra University, 2000
9) But Harishan suan, psychology of sports, New York Vanano standard rein hold co. 1976
13) Sheth Balmukund, Vyavharlakshi Manovignan bhag – 2, Ahmedabad, University Granth Nirman Board, Gujarat Rajya, 1973
14) Shukla Bhasker A. – Ramat Gamat Parichaya Ane Upayogata. Ahmedabad University
Granth Nirman Board Gujarat Rajya 1997s

15) Sarviaya, G. T. Ane Anya, Sharirik hikshan Ane Ramat Gamat Adyatan Pravho :
Gandhinagar : Gujarat Rajya Shala Pathya Pustak Mandal 2002

16) Singar Robert N: Maths and truths in sports psychology, New York. Harpar and Ro

17) Miroslav Vanek the personality trait test conducted on Mira, an Olympic Figure Skater who performed at the highest level clearly stated that, she was introverted.

18) Miroslav Vanek Personality test administrated on Jan, a former Olympic thrower, revealed that high needs for achievement were accompanied by several trait that were likely to interfere with his performance.

19) Miroslav Vanek was introverted and reserved. He was emotionally unstable in some ways particularly when tension and pressure on his performance would mount.

20) Elizabeth. A.: Milfred “Babe” Didrikson who secured 2 gold medals out of the 3 events she entered in 1932 Olympics, worked hard.

21) “Sports Training Methods” 2007 Dr. K. Shreedhar, Lecturer (S.S.) Annamali University, Tamil Nadu, India.
1) Federik and Mary - The philosophy of Jin, Jacks, Roseu and Application Core American Physical education completed Research in Health, Physical Education and Recreation. Volume – 6 (1964) : 39

2) Meken J. A. “A Study of the works and contribution of the earst careman Arnold to the profession of healthy physical Education” completed Research in health, physical education and recreation. Volume 8 (1966) : 41

UNPUBLISHED LITERATURE

1) Kachadia Reka: “Antar Rashtriya Kakshana Khelkudvir Ane Eklavya Award Vijeta Shri D.K Malaviya no vyaktiakshii Abhyas” Unpublished Master’s thesis Hemchandrachrya Uttar Gujarat University, Patan, April - 2005

14) Thulasee Das conducted a study on Olympian Suresh Babu in the year 1983. Suresh Babu is the gold medalist in long jump in Bangkok.

15) Niranjan 1988 conducted a case study on Prakash Padukone, the Badminton player.

16) Chinamay Sharma conducted a case study on Bhogeswar Baruah, the Arjuna award winner in athletics.

17) Zakir Ahammed conducted a case of study of Victor Manjila, National soccer player in the year 1983.

18) Dennis 1988 conducted a case study of D.P. Mony, the Olympian weight lifter.

20) Sundaresan conducted a case study on P.V. Kamaraj, an International athlete and his personality traits, in the year 1992.

21) Charles I. Barajan undertook the case study on Mr. V.J. Philips who as an Indian hockey player.

22) Hotchkiss (1971) depicted the personal and professional contribution of Michael Peppe to Physical Education particularly to aquatics.

23) Freeman (1974) studied biography of William "Jay Bowerman who spent his life in the pursuit of physical fitness and excellence in sports.

24) Penington (1972) presented and Interpreted the life and professional advances of Fredrick Rand Rogers.

25) Herman’s (1973) study was the biography of Prince Elmer Shotwell’s contributions to Texas Inter scholastics Athletics, to the University Inter scholastic league and to the Texas High School Coaches Association.

26) Peter’s (1973) purpose of study was (1) to investigate the life and contributions of Robert John Herman Kiphuth to Yale Swimming.