ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

During the time of my sojourns in India to pursue Ph.D. course of Buddhist studies in the University of Delhi, I received from Ven. Hanh Chanh Chon Minh not only in term of the generous material supports, but also that of the warm spiritual, have in deep created comfort and sooth conditions for one to keep mental peace and light – hearted in order to put whole my mind and will for in my study.

I could not express my debt of gratitude to there most venerable Monk in words.

In the course of writing this research work, I would like to thanks and to express my deep gratitude especially to Dharma Master Thich Nhu Dien; my Master Thich Giac Hoa; Dharma Sister Thich Ngo Mai; Dr. Shalini Singhal my respected Supervisor and Prof. K.T.S. Sarao who helped and supported me always for my study with self confidence and inspired me to do my research work. Without their help, it would not have been possible for me to complete such a difficult task.

And then I would like to show my deep thankful to all the other authority, professors, readers and lecturers, of the Department, who directly or and instructed, me during the period of my study. Buddhism from M.A., M. Phil. to Ph. D. Course at the place of its origination. I am also very grateful to all my Dharma friends – Monks and Nuns, Lay-men and Lay-women and Buddhist disciples have been kindly helpful in one way or another for my knowledge accomplishment, but their names are too many to be mentioned here.

At least, my sincere acknowledgements go to those whose books have been will used for quotations and reference in my research work and my thank are also due to the Library Staff of Delhi University Library, System and Research Services Section, Centre Reference Library for research facilities and their helping hands.
