ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I would like to express my deep sense of gratitude to all those who had contributed to the completion of this work.

My first words of grateful thanks are due to my guide Sri. Amarnath, R. Das, for suggesting me this topic and making it possible for me to prosecute this research. I owe him for stimulating my research insight, guiding me in the analysis and logical presentation.

I am grateful to the senior members of the Faculty of Sociology, Prof. G.L. Naidu, and Head of the Department of Sociology, Dr.Ch. Umamohan for their words of encouragement and guidance.

Sri. R.V.K. Naidu, Lecturer, needs a special mention for his guidance and assistance in various stages of this work.

I am appreciative of the assistance extended to me by the Deputy Director, Social Welfare, Chittoor, wardens of the hostels, inmates who had co-operated with me in carrying out this study.
My wife Nirmala, deserves a mention here, for she assumed full responsibility of the family and my children while I was preoccupied with this work.

A special word of thanks to Sri. P. Lokanna, for typing this dissertation.

(S. FRATAP)