BIOGRAPHY

Name : Mahmoud Mousai Sanjarehei

Education : Holder of a High School Diploma in Road and Construction- 1980-81

Academic Degree : Holder of a Bachelor’s Degree in Painting from Faculty of Fine Arts- University of Tehran- 1992

Holder of a Master’s Degree in Painting from Faculty of Art and Architecture- Islamic Azad University- Tehran 2003

A student of Ph.D. Degree level 2007- Faculty of Music and Fine Arts- University of Delhi- Delhi- 110007 India

Present Position : Instructor of Faculty of Art and Architecture- Islamic Azad University- Tehran

Field : Painting and Graphics

Email : mahmoudsanjari@yahoo.com
LIST OF FIGURES

Figure 1: Two lovers; Mural on Chehelsotun Palace, Esfahan ............... 18
Figure 2: Pattern (Immortal Soldiers) on tiles found in Shoush ............. 25
Figure 3: Hunting-grounds; Mural found in Dura Europos, Syria .......... 27
Figure 4: A mural of the king and the queen, KuohKhajeh .................. 28
Figure 5: Fresco: The Hunting-ground, Shoush; Sassanid period .......... 30
Figure 6: Figure taken from a Manichaean book, Musicians; 8th/9th century AD .......................................................... 32
Figure 7: Mural in Ajanta Cave, Caitya Halls, Bodhisattva Padmapani, Gupta; probably towards the end of 5th century AD .......................................................... 42
Figure 8: Mural in Ajanta Cave .......................................................... 43
Figure 9: Ajanta Map .......................................................... 45
Figure 10: Qutub Minar .......................................................... 48
Figure 11: Portrait of Shah Tahmaasib in his youth; painted by Reza Abbasi ......................................................................... 57
Figure 12: A Safavid Prince and his servant, Painted by Mir Seyed Ali; Gouache on silk fabric .......................................................... 58
Figure 13: Jamshid while engraving on stone (taken from Sa’di’s Boustan) painted by Abdolsamad Gouache on paper ................. 59
Figure 14: Shah Abbas I, Painted by Bishn Das; Gouache on paper ....... 60
Figure 15: Miniature from Akbarnameh, Mughal, first pattern Bessavan; Painted by Chatay, Akbar’s period 1595, painting on paper .......................................................... 61
Figure 16: Squirrels on a tree, Mughal, by Mansour, Jahangir’s period; 1615 AD Painting and gold plating on paper .......... 62
Figure 17: Prophet Mohammad’s ascent to heaven, from the Khamsa of Nezami belonging to Shah Tahmasib; Second School of Tabriz .......................................................... 67
Figure 18: An old woman takes Majnou to Leyli’s Tent; Mir Seyed Ali, Second School of Tabriz, from the Khamsa of Nezami belonging to Shah Tahmasib ................................................. 68

Figure 19: Haft Awrang of Jami; a father’s discourse love/detail, chess players and surrounding area; attributable to Mirza Ali ................................................................................................ 71

Figure 20: Khamsa of Nizami; Nushirvan listening to the owl on the ruined palace, Aqa Mirak .......................................................... 72

Figure 21: A painting from Makhzan al-asrar, Reza Abbasi, Esfahan; 1023 AH ................................................................................. 73

Figure 22: Saki wearing a costume with birds’ pattern, painted by Reza Abbasi; the Golshan Album ....................................................... 75

Figure 23: Portrait of Jahangir, Mughal, c. AD 1620 ............................ 81

Figure 24: A portrait of Shah Jahan in his 36, Gouache on paper ............ 84

Figure 25: Page from LuarChanda manuscript, Uttar Pradesh, late 15 century Baharat Kala Bhavan Banaras ........................................... 86

Figure 26: Detail of Janupur Kalpasutra ................................................... 87

Figure 27: Portrait of Radha, Rajasthani, Kishangarh, c 1760; Paint on paper. Kishangarh Darbar, Rajasthan ........................................ 89

Figure 28: Two Princesses, Jodhpur, c AD 1775 ........................................ 90

Figure 29: Ragini Bhairavi, Kangra, c AD 1785-90 .................................. 92

Figure 30: Keshvadasa Paying Homage to Radhaavd Krishna, Kangra, c AD 1800 ................................................................. 94

Figure 31: A bust, with beard and moustache; Achaemenid art ............. 100

Figure 32: Differences between the faces of the youth and the mature men .................................................................................. 101

Figure 33: The faces of mature erudite and elderly people ...................... 102

Figure 34: Differences between the faces of Persian and Indian kings; Muchal emperor Jahangir hugging Shah Abbas of Persia, c AD 1620 .................................................................................. 103

Figure 35: An example of female costume, sitting women without motion in Persian miniature ......................................................... 105
Figure 36: The coarse bodies and their motions in Mughal miniature, India................................................................. 106
Figure 37: The coarse bodies and their motions in Mughal miniature, India................................................................. 107
Figure 38: The relatively movement of people in war; Persian miniature ........................................................................ 108
Figure 39: Lace and thin fabric in male and female costume; Mughal miniature .............................................................. 110
Figure 40: An example of Spiral line composition in miniature – Maqamat-e Hariri. Second half of AH 7th century ................. 116
Figure 41: An example of circle composition in miniature .............................................................. 117
Figure 42: Diagonal lines composition ....................................................................................................................... 119
Figure 43: Composition, perspective and color in miniature, Yousef rejects Zoleykha’s courtship; painted by Behzad, Sa’di’s Boustan, AH 893 ................................................................. 121
Figure 44: Composition, perspective and color in Kooshk-e-sabz; Nizami’s Haft Peykar ...................................................... 124
Figure 45: Composition, perspective and color in Koosh-e-sorkh; Nizami’s Haft Peykar ...................................................... 127
Figure 46: A king’s crown ........................................................................................................................................... 129
Figure 47: White turban with a stiff red cloth on top in Safavid miniature ................................................................. 130
Figure 48: An example of turban in a different style ................................................................................................. 131
Figure 49: Mountain and cave in miniature .............................................................................................................. 134
Figure 50: Mountain and cave in miniature .............................................................................................................. 135
Figure 51: Geometrical composition applied on Mosque’s walls .......................................................... 137
Figure 52: Arabesque and Chinese-Style Floral composition in mosques ............................................................. 138
Figure 53: An example of Nasta’liq Calligraphy by Mir Emad (Imam Ali’s verse prayer); Esfahan c AH 1010 .................. 141
Figure 54: Majnun’s mourning on Leila’s grave, Sultanate painting ............................................................. 150
Figure 55: Babar watching wrestling and animal fights, a leaf from the Babar Nama, Mughal, AD 1597 ........................................... 151

Figure 56: Babar on a hunting expedition near Bigram – a leaf from Indian miniature paintings; a folio from the Babarnama, Mughal, 1598 AD ................................................................. 152

Figure 57: A miniature form Kelileh va Demneh, anonymous artist, Herat School ................................................................. 156

Figure 58: A miniature form Kelileh va Demneh, Herat School, anonymous artist ................................................................. 157

Figure 59: Esfandiyar Killing Arjasb in Ruyin Dezh; a folio from Shahnama Baysenqori, 833 AH .................................................. 158

Figure 60: Isfandyar grieving over the miserable plight of his closest associate, a folio of Sikandarnama by Nizami, Persian, Shiraz, 1554 AD ................................................................. 160

Figure 61: Two owls talking about a weak monarch and foolish people around, Sikandarnama Manuscript, Persian, Shiraz, 1554 AD ................................................................. 161

Figure 62: Portrait of Shabeik Khan, painted by Kamaleddin Behzad; Herat School, c AH 914 .................................................. 164

Figure 63: A feast held on the occasion of Teymur’s return from Mavara-un-Nahr to Samarqand; Zafar Nama Teymuri, 798 AH by Behzad ................................................................. 165

Figure 64: Safavid miniature, painted by Sultan Mohammad .................................................. 170

Figure 65: Safavid miniature, painted by Sultan Mohammad .................................................. 171

Figure 66: Safavid miniature, painted by Sultan Mohammad .................................................. 172

Figure 67: Safavid miniature, painted by Sultan Mohammad .................................................. 173

Figure 68: Safavid miniature, painted by Sheikh Zadeh .................................................. 174

Figure 69: Safavid miniature, painted by Sheikh Zadeh .................................................. 175

Figure 70: Safavid miniature, painted by Sheikh Zadeh .................................................. 176

Figure 71: Safavid miniature, painted by Agha Mirak .................................................. 177

Figure 72: Safavid miniature, painted by Agha Mirak .................................................. 178

Figure 73: Safavid miniature, painted by Mir Mosavar .................................................. 180
List of Figures

Figure 74: Safavid miniature, painted by Mirza Ali .............................................. 181
Figure 75: Safavid miniature, painted by Mirza Ali .............................................. 182
Figure 76: Safavid miniature, painted by Mir Seyed Ali....................................... 183
Figure 77: Safavid miniature, painted by Mozafar Ali ........................................ 184
Figure 78: Safavid miniature, painted by Khajeh Abdolaziz .............................. 185
Figure 79: Safavid miniature, painted by Abdolsamad ...................................... 186
Figure 80: Safavid miniature, painted by Sheikh Mohammad ............................ 187
Figure 81: Safavid miniature, painted by Sheikh Mohammad ............................ 188
Figure 82: Safavid miniature, painted by Mohammad Ghadimi .......................... 189
Figure 83: Differences between the costume of a dervish and a youth in Persian miniature ........................................................... 192
Figure 84: A Young man from Persia in European costume; painted by Reza Abbasi ............................................................................ 193