ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I wish to express my sincere gratitude to Dr. C. Joyce Mathew, Principal Investigator of the U.G.C. Major Research Project, for his guidance and supervision throughout this work and for his help in the preparation of the manuscript.

Most of the specimens were collected as part of the University Grants Commission Major Research Project of the Department of Botany, Union Christian College, Alwaye. I had opportunities to accompany the Principal Investigator and his team for collection of specimens. Also, I had the privilege of using materials and facilities provided by the Department using the U.G.C. grant. Also, I received some amount as hiring charges from the U.G.C. grant. I am extremely grateful to the University Grants Commission for all the help I received during the period of my research. Mr. P. I. Varghese, who was Field Assistant of the Project, helped me in the collection of specimens. In addition to his assistance during the collection trips, he conducted independent journeys to remote forest areas to collect specimens for my research. I am very grateful to him for his valuable assistance.

I am much obliged to the authorities of Union Christian College, Alwaye, for providing me with the necessary facilities for carrying out the research work. In this connection, I would like to thank Dr. Rajan Varughese, former Principal; Dr. Raju. K. John, the present Principal; the Rev. Fr. K. C. Mathew, former Manager of the College; the Heads of the Department of Botany, Prof. C. M. Mathew, Prof. Joy Job Kulavelil and Mrs. Santha M. Mathew. I thank Prof. C. M. Mathew, Dr. K. I. Mani Varghese, Dr. (Mrs) Thara K. Simon and Miss. K. Geetha who used to accompany me on my collection tours and for their advice in my research. I thank Prof. T. T. Cherian, Bharatha Matha College, Thrikkakara for his encouragement and suggestions.

I thank the authorities of Mahatma Gandhi University for providing me with a Junior Research Fellowship without which I could not have completed my work. I thank Mrs. Mary John for the translation of papers from French to English and the Rev. Dr. M. M. Mathew for translating Latin to English.

Dr. Rolf Rutishauser, University of Zurich, Switzerland was kind enough to prepare Scanning Electron Micrographs (SEM) of Zeolaniidium olivaceum for my investigation.
His comments and suggestions were extremely valuable in my investigation. I gratefully acknowledge his help.

Prof. C. Thomas Philbrick, Western Connecticut State University, U.S.A. graciously sent specimens of American Podostemaceae for my research work. These materials were very useful in my studies. I thank Prof. Thomas Philbrick for his valuable assistance.

Dr. (Mrs) Irmgard Jäger-Zürn, Germany was helpful to me throughout the period of the investigation. She showed exceptional interest in the specimens collected by me and offered very important suggestions. Also, she was kind enough to join us for publication of a paper on a new species of Dalzellia. I am immensely thankful to her for the suggestions and advice.

Dr. Masahiro Kato, University of Tokyo, Japan had sent a list of members of the Podostemaceae collected by him from Kerala. Also, he had expressed his desire to collaborate in the research work on Indian Podostemaceae. Dr. Anna Lynch of Jodrell Laboratory, Kew, U.K., sent a list of references on Podostemaceae. I express my gratitude to them for their help in the investigation. Dr. V.K. Satheesh, who did research on Podostemaceae was very helpful to me. He gave me important reference materials. I am grateful to him for his help and encouragement.

I thank the Librarians and the staff of Central Marine Fisheries Research Institute (CMFRI) Library, Cochin, Mahatma Gandhi University Library, Kottayam; Calicut University Library, Calicut and Union Christian College Library, Alwaye for their help in the collection of reference materials.

I gratefully acknowledge the help I received from the office staff and the members of the teaching and non-teaching staff of the Department of Botany, Union Christian College, Alwaye.

My thanks are also due to Mr. N. F. Jose and Sreedevi (Coastal Impex, Cochin) for Computer Assistance in the preparation of the Ph.D. thesis.

I am much obliged to my mother, husband, other members of the family and friends who gave me their encouragement and support in completing my research work.
