ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I am very much delighted to have this opportunity to record my heart felt and profound sense of gratitude to my revered teacher and Research Supervisor Prof. Ch. Umamohan, whose invaluable suggestions, keen interest, advice and constructive criticism during the work, moulded me to bring out this thesis. I owe him for shaping my research insight and interpretative abilities. I always had free access to him for which I would remain ever grateful to him. His encouragement, helpful discussions and care even in minute details are responsible for successful completion of my thesis.

I record my heart felt gratitude to Dr. G. Venkata Ramana, Head, Department of Sociology, S.K. University, Anantapur, for his inspiring and instructive guidance throughout my research work.

I place on record my profound gratitude and respectful regards to Prof. Amarnath R. Das, Chairman, Board of Studies, Department of Sociology, for is constant help, cooperation and moral support during the course of my research.

I record my heart felt gratitude to Prof. R. Vijaya Krishna Naidu, Department of Sociology, S.K. University, Anantapur, for his inspiring and instructive guidance throughout my research work.

I take this opportunity to thank my teachers Prof. B.S. Chand Basha and Dr. C. Rami Reddy for giving me suggestions at different stages of my research work.

There are no words to express adequately gratitude to my beloved and esteemed parents Sri Gorantla (Dubbanna) & Smt. Sunkulamma who are responsible for my academic development; I humbly dedicate this thesis to both of them. My thanks are also due to my brothers and sisters for their words of encouragement and acts of kindness.

My thanks are also due to Dr. M. Sreeramulu, Dr. P. Devaraju, Dr. K. Nagaraju, Dr. P. Thimmaiah, Dr. S.J. Sampath Kumar Dr. M. Nagaraju, P. Vijaya Kumar, G. Bala Swamy, V. Vijaya Sekhar Raju, A.S. Kanna, for the kind help and valuable suggestions during the course of my research work.

Last but not the least; I am thankful to one and all who helped me directly or indirectly for the early completion of my research work.
