The author takes great pleasure in expressing his profound thanks to Dr. Mohammad Shafi, Ph.D. (Lond.), Professor and Head of the Department of Geography, Aligarh Muslim University, Aligarh for his valuable guidance and supervision in the completion of this work. The author is also indebted to Professor S. Muzaffer Ali, Ph.D. (Lond.), F.N.I., Head of the Department of General and Applied Geography, University of Saugar for his valuable comments and suggestions in the preparation of the manuscripts, and to Dr. M. Anas, Ph.D. (A.J.U.), Reader in Geography, Aligarh Muslim University for valuable advice in the preparation of certain maps and in the execution of fieldwork. I am also deeply grateful to Professor V. A. Janaki, M.A., B.Litt (Oxon), Head of the Department of Geography, Faculty of Science, M.S. University of Baroda for permitting me to work on Central Gujarat and providing the necessary cartographic facilities in the laboratory of the Department.

In the course of his fieldwork, the author has received generous assistance from many officials of the Government Departments of Agriculture, Forest, Land Records, Planning and Development, Veterinary etc. It is difficult to acknowledge their help individually. If the names of a few persons have been separately mentioned as foot-notes in the text of the thesis, it is only because they had gone out of their way to help the author.
The field work was made possible largely because of the kind help extended to the author by various Taluka Development Officers who willingly took the trouble of escorting the author to the villages in the interior. To all of them and to their various Extension Officers, the author is deeply indebted. Mention must be specially made of Shri Bedikar (T.D.O., Dabhoi), Shri Bhatt (T.D.O., Baroda), Shri C.N. Bhatia (C.I., Shahera). These gentlemen provided much valuable information which has been profitably incorporated in the Chapters Agriculture. Shri A.B. Adeti, D.I.L.R., Baroda had been exceptionally helpful to the author and deserves a separate note of acknowledgement.

The numerous Talathis, Circle Inspectors and Gram Sevaks who willingly helped the author in the collection of various data or else sent him useful information by post have placed him in a deep debt of gratitude.

The author would be failing in his duties if he does not thank Mr. Iqbal Ahmad, Cartographer of the Geography Department of Aligarh Muslim University for offering valuable suggestions and comments in the preparation of the maps. Further the author is also thankful to Mr. Mazhar Ali in the photostated of the maps and to Shri Izharul Hasan for typing the manuscripts with quite patience.
