CONTENTS

CHAPTER - I
Sociology of Health and Nutrition Conceptual Perspective:

CHAPTER - II
Anantapur District: Profile & Health Status:
Location - Demographic details - Rainfall - Economy - Educational Infrastructure - Health Care Infrastructure - Health status - Indicators - Morbidity trends.

CHAPTER - III
The Setting:
Profile of the Villages - Socio-economic status of children - Socio-economic status of mothers.

CHAPTER - IV
Knowledge, Awareness and Practice of Health Care:
Mothers concept of illness - Awareness of infrastructure - Preference for treatment - Awareness of infrastructure -
Knowledge of Scientific intervention - The health practices - Child rearing - Preventive and Curative practices -

CHAPTER - V

Health and Nutritional status 78 -106
Pre-school Rural Children:
Assessment of Nutritional status - Anthropometry - Measurement of Degree of malnutrition - Measurement of Duration of malnutrition - The pre-school rural children & the degree of malnutrition - The Pre-School rural Children and the duration of malnutrition - social background and malnutrition - Morbidity and Malnutrition - Summary.

CHAPTER - VI

Findings and Conclusions 107 -117

SELECT BIBLIOGRAPHY

APPENDIX

Anthropometric Measurements cut-off levels.