CONTENTS

Acknowledgement

Bibliography

(i) Books & Reports  \( I - IV \)

(ii) Articles  \( V - XI \)

(iii) Legislation (excluding Sale of Goods Act 1893 & 1930)  \( XII - XIV \)

(iv) Table of Cases  \( 1 - 71 \)

CHAPTER - I

INTRODUCTION  \( 1 - 12 \)

CHAPTER - II

HISTORICAL ASPECT OF CONDITIONS
AND WARRANTIES

(1) At Common Law  \( 13 - 18 \)

(2) Statutory Provisions  \( 19 - 28 \)

(3) Sale of Specific Goods & Goods
Sold by Description  \( 28 - 32 \)
CHAPTER III

CONDITIONS & WARRANTIES

I
Definition .. 33
Criticism .. 33-38
Amendment suggested .. 38-41

II
Types of Condition
(a) Express Condition & Implied Condition 41-42
(b) Condition Precedent & Condition Subsequent .. 42-44
(c) Contingent Conditions & Promissory Conditions .. 44-45
(d) Positive Conditions & Negative Conditions .. 45

III
Distinction between Conditions And Warranties 45-47
Remedies of the buyer for breach of Conditions and Warranties

(1) Right of Waiver 47-50

(ii)(a) Acceptance 50-55
(b) Severable Contracts 55-58
(c) Acceptance of part of the goods delivered 58-63

(iii) Right to Repudiate the Contract 63-67
Impossibility of performance 68-72
Government Control 73

CHAPTER IV

REPRESENTATION-TYPES AND PROBLEMS OF RECONSTRUCTION

I

Definition 74-70

II

Grounds of Actionability
(1) Inducement 78-80
(II) Reliance and Classification of Cases 80
( IV )

(1) Obvious defects 80
(2) Injection 80-81
(3) Statements made before the bargain 81-82
(4) Warranties given subsequent to the sale 83

III

Kinds of Representation

(A) Innocent Misrepresentation

I - At Common Law 84-90
II - In Equity 90-92

(B) Fraudulent Misrepresentation 92-94

(C) Equitable Doctrine of Constructive Fraud 95

IV

Basis of Liability for honest Misrepresentation 96-102

V

Construing Representation as a term of Contract 102-106
CHAPTER V

THE IMPLICATIONS OF PRIVITY RULE, LAW OF CONSIDERATION & EXEMPTION CLAUSES

I

The Definition of Consumer and the Privity Rule .. 107
Remedy available under the present law .. 108-113
The doctrine of privity is undesirable .. 113-119
The Privity rule in other countries of the World .. 117-120
Historical Background .. 120-130
Criticism of the doctrine .. 130-131
Amendment suggested .. 132-133

II

Arguments in support of holding the manufacturer liable instead of the seller

(1) Advertisement .. 134
(2) Packaging .. 135-137
(3) Labelling .. 137-141
(4) Multiplicity of Action .. 142-144
(VI)

(5) Display in show cases 144-145

(6) Distribution of risk of loss 145-148

(7) Issue of Guarantee Cards by Manufacturer 149

(8) Business policy 149

(9) Prevention of negligence 149

(10) Duty to protect against novel and unforeseen hazards 150-151

Exception 151-152

III

Suggestion to Introduce Amendment 152-154

Limitations of duty 154-157

Special of seller of product for physical harm to user or consumer 157-163

IV

Relaxation of Privity rule and Development of Theory of Strict Liability in America 163-171

Need for a unitary system of product liability 171-173
Exemption Clauses and Manufacturer's Guarantees 173-174

Buyer and Retailer 174
Buyer and Manufacturer 174-175

Exemption Clauses 176-183
Fundamental Breach & Fundamental Term 184-197
Non-Consumer Sale 197-198

1. The bargaining position of the parties 198
2. Inducement to accept exemption clauses 198
3. Knowledge of the terms and effects 198-199
4. Exemption if the buyer does not comply with conditions specified 199
5. When the goods are made or adapted to the buyer's order 199-200

Consumer Sale 200-204
( VIII )

CHAPTE R - VI

IMPLIED UN DERTAKING AS TO TITLE QUIET
POSSESSION & FREEDOM FROM ENCUMBRANCE

I

Interpretations
Opening Words of Section 14 of S.C.A. .. 205-231
Effect of breach of Condition as to Title .. 232-237
Feeding Title 237-240
Infringement of Trade Mark II 241
Implied Warranties of Quit possession & Freedom from encumbrance 242-248

III
Exemption from Liability Sale of Limited Interest 268

IV
Rule of Market Overt 269-275

CHAPTE R - VII

SALE OF GOODS BY DESCRIPTION & SAMPLE

I
Specific Goods and Goods sold by description explained .. 276-283
( IX )

II

Non conformity with the description and the remedies of the buyer 283-289

III

Interpretation 289-297

IV

Sale of Goods by Sample as well as by description 298-300

V

Sale by Sample 300-303

VI

Parol Evidence Rule 304-310

VII

Implied Condition Under Contract of Sale by sample 311-

1. Correspondence with bulk 312-316
2. Reasonable opportunity to compare the bulk with the sample .. 316-318

3. Goods to be free from any defect rendering them unmerchantable which may not be apparent on reasonable examination of the sample .. 318-322

CHAPTER VIII

RULE OF CAVEAT EMPTOR AND ITS EXCEPTIONS

I

Rule of Caveat Emptor .. 323-328

II

Interpretation-
particular purpose .. 329-332

Reliance on sellers' skill and judgment .. 332-337

Manufacture of Goods according to specific orders .. 337-339

Partial reliance how far effective .. 339-342
Liability where the buyer selects the goods .. 342-345

Sale by Agent 345-347

Reasonable fitness 347

Duration of fitness 347

Extension of section to goods supplied under contact of sale 349

Reliance on Trade name 350

III

Implied Condition of Merchantability 355-356

Meaning and definition 356-375

Duration of merchantability 376-389

Proviso to section 16(2) 389-393

Meaning of Latent and Patent Defects 393-395

Second hand goods 395-397

IV

Reformulation of provisions relating to quality and Fitness 398-401

Reform Suggested by Christine Davies 401-409
Conditions or Warranties implied by usage .. 409-413
Exclusion of Implied Terms by Express terms .. 413

CHAPTER - IX

CONCLUSION .. 415 - 435