Acknowledgement

In the name of Allah, the most beneficent and merciful who provided me the strength to undertake this onerous task.

A number of my teachers and benefactors have contributed in this endeavour I wish to pay my gratitude to them through this acknowledgement. I begin with Prof. V.S. Rekhi who has been a constant source of inspiration for me. He spared his valuable time for this study as well. My other teachers namely Prof. M. Ishaq Qureshi, Prof. Saleem Akhtar, Prof. Qaiser Hayat, Prof. Akhlaq Ahmad and Prof. M. Shabbir continued to have faith in me despite the fact that the completion of the study took more time than expected. Prof. Ishaq Qureshi offered valuable suggestions in the drafts at different stages. My colleague and friend, Dr. Faizan Mustafa, despite his multifarious engagements made himself available whenever I needed him. His discerning eye helped to improve the presentation significantly. Dr. Afzal Wani, my colleague and now Reader in the Indian Law Institute, Delhi offered all possible assistance in ensuring due collection of the relevant material as also a comfortable stay in ILI, off and on. My student, Mrs. Shabistan Aqil, Lecturer in ILI also helped me a lot during my stay at Delhi. My colleague and student, Mr. Zafar Mahfooz Nomani, helped me locate relevant material for the study. Similarly Mr. Atul Kumar (Advocate) graciously offered access to his personal library.

The staff at Seminar Library of Law Department namely Mr. Sabir, Mr. Roshan Khayal and Mr. Afroz were ever eager to assist me in locating relevant material. Wajid Bhai, who has now retired, stands tall for his helping hand although. The office staff namely Mr. Naeemuddin, Mr. Zuber, Mr. Shareef and Mr. Yaseen provided the necessary moral as also administrative support in ensuring the smooth passage. My friends Mr. Tauqeer Ahmad, Mr. S M. Afzal, Mr. Khursheed Mehmood, Mr. Najeeb Khan Sherwani, Mr. Arif, Mr. Afroz Sherwani, Mr. Rashid Amin, Dr. Javed Akhtar and Mr. Naved also acted as an emotional succour althrough. They kept exhorting me to keep going and remain cheerful althrough. My family members, specially my parents, acted as banyan tree. They offered me the internal strength as also material support. I owe a debt of gratitude beyond repayment to my sister and brother in law, Mr. Shamim Ahmed Khan for their continuous encouragement and support. I am thankful to my wife for her cooperation at every stage of the work. My in laws in Delhi also helped me at each and every stage during this study.

I wish to make a special mention of Mrs. V.S. Rekhi (Aunti) for showering her motherly affection during my endless visits to her house, initially in Bhopal and then in Delhi.

The staff of CGC, specially M/s. Arif Jamal Siddiqi and Sarfaraz Alam Saifi, helped me by offering necessary computer assistance. Mr. Mohd Riaz Khan, despite his pressing engagement in the Department, was always available, often at odd hours, for typing the work. I wish to, therefore, thank him specially.

Last but importantly, I acknowledge the services of my brother, Dr. Parvaiz Talib, who inspired me to put in persistent hard work. Despite his busy schedule, he offered help whenever I needed it.
