ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This study is the result of an exhaustive examination of sources, primary as well as secondary. The primary sources were collected from the various Diocesan and Religious Congregation Archives and Libraries in Kerala, Tamilnadu, Karnataka and Poona. These original sources were further supplemented by published works of the contemporary and later periods collected from the CMC, FCC, SVM, SABS, SHC and CHF Generalates and various Diocesan Archives like that of Trichur, Kottayam, Changanacherry, Ernakulam etc. Besides these, the primary and secondary data are corroborated by a series of personal interviews and discussions with eminent scholars.

The data is supplemented from Kerala State Archives, Thiruvananthapuram; Centre for Development Studies, Thiruvananthapuram; St.Joseph’s Monastery Archives, Mannanam; St.Joseph’s Pontifical Seminary Library, Alwaye; St.Thomas Apostolic Seminary Library, Kottayam; Mahatma Gandhi University Library, Kottayam; School of Social Sciences Library, Kottayam; United Theological College Archives, Bangalore; Dharmaram Vidyakshetram Library, Bangalore; St.Peter’s Pontifical Seminary Library, Malleswaram; Papal Seminary Library, Poona; Mother Teresa Women’s University Library, Kodaikanal; Connemera Public Library, Chennai; Gurukul Lutheran Studies, Library, Chennai and St.Joseph’s College Library, Irinjalakuda.

First and foremost, I record my deep gratitude to my research guide, Dr. Rajan Gurukkal, Director, School of Social Sciences, Mahatma Gandhi University, Kottayam, who had been a constant source of inspiration to me from the moment I started my research, till the successful completion. In spite of his pre-occupations and busy schedule he spared his valuable time and evinced keen interest at every stage of my research. I thank him most sincerely for his valuable guidance, vast scholarship, encouragement and stimulating ideas which made my sailing smooth and enjoyable.

With gratitude I remember Jalaja Rajan and Krishnaraj for their love and friendship.

I express my sincere thanks to Dr. Nissar Ahmed, Dr. Raju, Mr. Sanal Mohan and Miss. Radika of the School of Social Sciences, for their support. I thank Mrs. Jayasree, the librarian and the staff of School of Social Sciences, for their cooperation. I also thank all the research scholars who did research along with me in School of Social Sciences. I am thankful to the authorities and staff of Mahatma Gandhi University, Kottayam, who did all the necessary paper works connected with my Ph.D.

In the course of my doctoral research, I was fortunate to receive valuable guidance and suggestions from various quarters. I would like to mention gratefully the encouragement and guidance which I received from eminent scholars like Dr. M.G.S. Narayanan, former Member Secretary to ICHR; Dr. Mathias Mundadan, famous Church Historian; Dr. Thomas Kadankavil and Dr. Kuncheria Pathil, Dharmaram Vidyakshetram, Bangalore; Dr. John Britto Chethimattam, CMI Catholic Centre, Kanyakumari; Dr. A. Suryakumary and Dr. Chitra of Mother Teresa Women's University, Kodaikanal; Dr. Michael Tharakan and Dr. Devika, Centre for Development Studies, Thiruvananthapuram and many others with whom I had fruitful discussions.
I am very much grateful to Mrs. Annie Jose, former Head of the Department of History, Mrs. Mary Antio, Dr. Vinla Menon, Dr. Anne Mary Charles and Dr. Rani Paul Ukken of Department of English, St. Joseph's College who spent their valuable time to read and correct the thesis. A special word of thanks to Dr. Radha Muralidharan, Head of the Department of English, St. Joseph's College, Irinjalakuda for her timely help. I would also like to thank Dr. Pious Malekandathil, Reader, Department of History, Sree Sankaracharya University of Sanskrit, Kalady, who scrutinized the draft of the entire thesis and offered valuable suggestions, which enabled me to improve the content of the present study.

In the course of my research and study, I have received excellent hospitality and generous help from many. The Mother Generals and Councils of CHF, CMC, FCC, SVM, SABS and SHC are to be specially mentioned in this context. I owe a great debt of gratitude to SVM sisters of St. Luke's Convent and Visitation Hostel, Kottayam, for the love and concern which they extended to me. I take this opportunity to thank my own community members in Santhi Bhavan, Christhu Jyothi, St. Joseph's and Holy Family Hostel, Irinjalakuda for their whole hearted support and cooperation.

I take this opportunity to thank my own sisters of the Congregation of Holy Family, for their valuable prayers. I acknowledge my gratitude to CHF Superior Generals-Rev. Mother Mary Pastor and Council and Rev. Mother Annie Palathingal and Council — for their prayers and blessings. I am grateful to Provincial Superiors – Rev. Sr. Philo Ivantia and Council, Rev. Sr. Annie Grace and Council — for their encouragement and support.

Finally, I am grateful to Rev. Sr. Vijaya and Dr. Sr. Ranjana - former and present Principals - for their encouragement and support. I also thank all my teachers and colleagues in St. Joseph's College, especially Mrs. Joice Vivera, Sr. Lissitta, Mrs. Baitha Antony and the faculty of the Department of Computer Science for their help and cooperation. I extend my heartfelt thanks to my family, friends and all those who helped me in one way or other.

I bow before Blessed Mother Mariam Thresia, the foundress of the CHF, who inspired me with new insights and enthusiasm throughout this research work. With gratitude I thank God Almighty for His wonderful guidance and help in completing this work which I am offering for His glory!!!
