ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I also felt some need to complete this work wherein many persons rendered their hands and guidance and the sacrifice of such persons should never go unattended. So, I am fully unable to restrain myself from offering my thanks to those personalities. Some of them, however, deserve extraordinary acknowledgment.

I would like to take this opportunity to express my devoutly gratefulness to my learned Supervisor Prof. (Dr.) Preet Singh, Department of Law, M.D. University, Rohtak for his grueling teachings, never-ending motivation and above all his firm confidence in me. His critique frame of mind and spirit, gave this Research Work an original shape. I am deeply indebted to him for his guidance, and valuable suggestions which enabled me to carry out this work well in time.

I must express my gratitude to Professor (Dr.) Mrs. Promila Chugh Head and Dean, Department of Law, M.D. University, Rohtak for providing me priceless inspiration and much desirable managerial hold up to complete my Research in time.

Similarly, I am under obligation to Prof. (Dr.) Naresh Kumar Sharma, Department of Law, M.D. University for his beloved and determined suggestions which profoundly enriched the substance of this study. I can not fail to remember his invariable encouragement and inspiration, throughout the time of my research in time.

My recognition is due to the staff members of a variety of libraries visited by me namely, Indian Law Institute Delhi, Delhi University, M.D. University, Rohtak.

I also cannot close my eyes in extending my exceptional thanks to my Hon’ble Parents, without whose blessings and prop up, I could not have completed this work. The rest of my family including my husband, Mr. Manjit Singh, daughter, Mannat Singh and son, Veer Sultan Singh also joined their hands to enlarge their wishes and rally round to me in reaching the destination.
My husband had been a stable source of brainwave to buster my moral in high scholastic pursuits and kept me in good humour.

In the end, I communicate my appreciation to all the biographers whose books/articles readings have been consulted by me for my investigational work.

(VIVEKTA SINGH)