ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

First of all I would like to thank my Supervisor, Professor P.K. Misra, Department of Anthropology, North-Eastern Hill University and also express my gratitude for his guidance and help rendered by way of discussion and correction. I would also like to thank Dr. R.K. Pathak, Head, Department of Anthropology, North-Eastern Hill University, Dr. A.K. Ghosh and Dr. Suba all of whom rendered valuable help to me.

I am deeply indebted to late Mr. N.S. Myan, who was Deputy Commissioner, Changlang District, Arunachal Pradesh, for his immense help and encouragement.

I owe deep gratitude to the then Minister for Research, Arunachal Pradesh, Shri W. Pongte and Shri T. Ngem, Minister, Arunachal Pradesh, without whose encouragement and help, it would not have been possible to carry out my field work extensively and efficiently.

A special word of appreciation goes to late Tairang Zongsom, Priest, Changlang village, Mr. Winlang Rekhung, District Language Officer, Mr. Kengsang Kenglang, District Socio Cultural Organiser, Mr. Komtu Mamai, District Statistical Officer, Mr. Thinghap Taizu, Mr. Thinghom Taizu, Mr. Homyong Matcha, Mr. Phoshum Kheimhum, Mr. Sausang Jongsom, Mr. P. Tangha of Changlang, Mr. Longtong Rekhung, Mrs. Muncha
Rekhung and Mr Hongsum Ngemu, Village Headman of Thomlom village, and Mr Shumkan Kheimhun of Khemiyong village.

In particular, thanks are also due to all at Changiang and to my Tangsa friends with whom I spent my days and who helped me to collect all the information.

I am indebted to my parents for their total encouragement and moral support.

Thanks are also due to R. Talukdar, N.K. Mazumdar, D.K. Mazumdar, M. Baruah, P. Talukdar of Guwahati and A.J. Mazumdar of Shillong for their help and assistance and also in providing useful hints about the research study.

A special thanks to Mr Godfrey Pathaw for his kind assistance for having typed the thesis with great patience and sincere effort.

Last but not least, I express my sincere thanks to my departmental friends, for their valuable suggestions. I also apologise to all my friends whose names are not specifically mentioned here.
