ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

At the beginning of this research work I could not imagine that I have to take immense help from so many quarters in almost every step of the work. Sometimes a little information and little help of an ordinary person (in normal thinking) is as precious as gold. Though the researcher gets the whole benefit of the work throughout his life and beyond; the research is a collective work and there is no doubt about it. At the beginning of my acknowledgement I express my deep sense of gratitude and thanks to my guide Professor and ex-head Department of History Dr. Bharati Baruah MA Ph D, LLB and Co-guide Professor and Head Department of Pol.Science Dr. Niru Hazarika D.Lit of Gauhati University whom I disturbed when I felt any problem and help and advice needed. In spite of their busy academic schedule they enormously help me from beginning till the end. I feel myself lucky and proud to have them as my guides. I am extremely grateful to Dr. Achok Saha M.Sc, LLB, Ph.D. LMISCA, LMISTE, LMIRCS Coordinator (Training) of NSS Training & Orientation Centre Continuing Education Programme IIT kharagpur, West Bengal, whom I discussed first to take NSS as research topic.

After finalizing my research topic I applied to the Ministry of Human Resource Development, Government of India for financial assistance. The Ministry approved it and offered me the entire financial support. Without the financial assistance of the Government it would not have been possible to undertake such an extensive and expensive task. I offer my sincere thanks to the Ministry and the NSS Cell, Government of India, New Delhi.

My thanks are due to the NSS Cell Jamnagar house New Delhi-110011, the Regional Centre Kolkata, Regional Centre North-East, Guwahati, Assam, Research Orientation and Training Centres of IIT Kharagpur and Ram Krishna Mission,
Norendrapur, West Bengal, NSS Coordinators and the staff of Guru Nanak Dev University, Amritsar, Punjab, Barkatullah University Bhopal, Madhya Pradesh, Gauhati University, Guwahati, IIE library, Guwahati, Dibrugarh University, Dibrugarh, Assam Agricultural University, Jorhat, Assam, and the Manipur University, Kanchipur, Manipur for allowing me to have access to the materials available in the respective offices and libraries. The State Liaison Officer Cells and concerned State NSS Officers of Assam, Arunachal Pradesh, Mizoram, Manipur, and Tripura for extending their kind help during my visit to their places in connection my research. The NSS Programme Officers of the Colleges and Secondary School Units deserve special thanks for responding to my questionnaire with their valuable suggestions. The student leaders who helped me in conducting the interviews also deserve sincere gratitude from me.

Besides the above mentioned institutions and organizations I am indebted to the Authorities of the National Library (News Paper Section) Kolkata, Arunachal Pradesh State Library, Itanagar, Arunachal Pradesh, Assam State Legislative Assembly Library, Dispur, Gauhati University Library, Bordoloi Nagar, and the District Library of Kamrup district of Guwahati, Assam.

From the very beginning of my research work on NSS, I was in close touch with the founder of NSS in Assam Dr. Amrit Kumar Sarmah, NSS Programme Officer and Principal of D.K. College, Mirza, Kamrup (now retired) and Prof. Rajen Baruah NSS Programme Officer of Mangaldoi College and Principal of Mangaldoi Law College, Mangaldoi, Assam (retired) who helped me immensely. My grateful thanks are to them.

As a research student I am indebted to Mr. P. Raghu Singh, Ex NSS Programme Officer and State Liaison Officer NSS Cell Government of Manipur and the recipient of the prestigious Indira Gandhi national NSS Programme Officers' Award from Kha Manipur College, Manipur and ex NSS Programme Officer and the recipient of NSS national Indira Gandhi award and the present Liaison Officer NSS Cell Government of Mizoram Mr. Pu Lamingthanga and the NSS Indira Gandhi national award for volunteers awardees Mr. Nandaram Barman and Hemanta Kr. Rabha of Gauhati University Assam, Miss Bharati Chakravorty and Tapas Saha of Tripura, Miss Bablee Devi of Manipur, Mr. Ati Ram Rabha, Central Govt. Official of Kolkata, Mr. Radha Charan Rabha, Director, Students’ Welfare, Gauhati University and Mr. Indra Koch, officer Government of India. These personalities helped me as respondents during my field survey. I am also grateful to Mr. Hemananda Singh and Miss Bindiya Devi NSVs of Manipur University and the local student and non-student leaders who helped me during my visit to the state for this purpose of my research work.

I convey my thanks also to Dr. Ashutosh Dubey, Programme Coordinator, NSS of Barkatullah University, Bhopal and Mrs. Sudha Lahoti Asstt. professor in Sociology and NSS programme officer, Govt. Girls’ college, Sehore, Bhopal, Madhya Pradesh. Mr. Kartik Sarmah Selection Grade lecturer and ex head, department of English North Guwahati College who helped me by looking into the language. Mr. Nirmal Ch. Deka, Coordinator Computer Division, State Resource Centre Assam, for his continuous help in designing the thesis. At the end I must remember and grateful to Nirendra Nath Thakuria, department of English, Pragjyotish college and Dr. Tondra Borbora, KRB Girls’ college for their special help and guidance. I extend my gratitude to all those special friends and well-wishers for their constant inspiration.

Dhāven Shrutikar