Acknowledgement

At the outset I wish to express my gratitude to my Guide and supervisor Professor Dr. K. A. Manikumar for his advice in the study of the object chosen for research. His guidance and help made me complete the dissertation to my satisfaction. His inspirations and the subsequent suggestions of an anonymous examiner contributed decisively to the quality of this work. The study of commercial agriculture from economic historian’s perspective enriched my knowledge and transformed my intellectual horizon during the period of study.

I thank my supervisor and the anonymous examiner sincerely for their earnestness.

I take this opportunity to thank Dr. K. Sadasivan, Professor and Head of the Department of History for his support and encouragement given during my full time tenure in the University Department.

I am greatly indebted to my wife Doctor H. Anitha Virgin Kumari for her emotional support and motivation.

I place on record my thanks to the library staff of Tamilnadu Archives for their valuable assistance in collecting the data. I owe also my thanks to the Librarians and the Library Staffs of University of Madras, Madras Institute Development Studies and Connemara Library (all in Chennai) for their help. Finally I thank Mrs. Priya Venkatesh who did an excellent job of typing this dissertation.
