ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I extend wholeheartedly my gratitude to Dr. J. Jeya Balaji, M.A., M.Phil., Ph.D., Reader in Economics, Scott Christian College, Nagercoil for his guidance, timely advice and inspiration throughout my research work. I thank Thiru Elango, Joint Commissioner, HR & CE, Thirunelveli, and Ms. S. Gomathy, Principal, Sri Devi Kumari Women’s College, Kuzhithurai for their patronage and encouragement. I also sincerely thank Professor P. Lalitha, M.A., Former Principal-in-Charge for her timely help and noble guidance.

I am grateful to the Secretary, University Grants Commission, New Delhi for providing necessary financial assistance to pursue my research study under the Faculty Improvement Programme in Manonmaniyam Sundaranar University.

My thanks are due to the Librarian, Connemara Library, Chennai and also the Librarians of Madras Institute of Development Studies, Chennai and Centre for Development Studies, Thiruvananthapuram for their cooperation in collecting necessary materials from their respective institutions.

I gratefully acknowledge the help of Vice President, Rubber Plantation Workers’ Union, CITU, Kulasegaram and the Secretary, INTUC, Nagercoil for their valuable information about activities of the Union. I also remember the help rendered by the Labour Welfare Office, Nagercoil, the Manager of the Rubber Board, Parvathipuram and Kuzhithurai for supplying valuable information and data in connection with my thesis. I must thank the Manager, Kurian Rubber Factory, Thuckalay for offering me free access to collect data from the factory and workers. I would be failing in my duty if I do not properly thank all the respondents, plantation and industry managers and workers of all descriptions, who have given me their valuable time and information, individually and in groups.
I express my gratitude to Dr. Velappan, S.T. Hindu College, Nagercoil, Dr. V. Mangala Antony Surendra, Pioneer Kumarasamy College, Nagercoil, Dr. Sundara Pandian, Scott Christian College, Nagercoil, and Dr. P. Valarmathy, Sri Devi Kumari College, Kuzhithurai for their inspiration and encouragement throughout the work on the thesis.

I record my deep sense of gratitude to Dr. T. Vasantha Kumaran, Professor of Geography, University of Madras for his valuable information and the right direction given in the writing of the thesis. I am thankful to Mrs. Selena Justus, M.A., M.Phil, for her taking pain to go through the drafts meticulously and enriched the quality and finesse of the thesis.

But for the light beckoned on me by my beloved father, Late Thiru. T. Soosai Asirvatham, I could not have done this piece of work. Remembering his noble desire fondly and reverently, I dedicate this work in his memory. The love and understanding of my mother Ms. Maria Thangam throughout my life and through difficult periods of my education deserve mention and I cannot thank her adequately, for words would fail to do so. I record my deep sense of gratitude and gratefulness to my brother-in-law Er. M. Stephen Sahaya Presad, M.E., for his valuable help and advice throughout the research work.

With grateful heart, I thank my beloved husband Thiru K. Lawrence, B.A., B.L., for his keen interest in my research work.

I remember my brother-in-law Thiru V. Packia Chandra and thank him for his valuable advice. I thank my sons Mr. L. Anto Stalin and L. Xavier Dhayanath for their cooperation and help to carry out my research work.

Above all, I raise my heart and soul to Lord Almighty and sing / Unto thee God do we give thanks/Unto thee do we give our thanks/That thy name is near thy wondrous works declare’ (Psalms 75: 1).
