ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I express my utmost sincere gratitude to my Supervisor, Professor Henry Lamin, Head, Department of Anthropology, NEHU, Shillong, for his guidance, encouragement and extended help at all stages of my work enabling me to complete it.

I am also deeply grateful to Professor T. B. Subha for his constant help and guidance at every stage of my work.

I am further indebted to the people of Wokha and Phiro villages for their generosity and hearty cooperation, and also my thanks are due to many friends and relatives who extended help during my field research work.

I am also thankful to Mr. Joseph F. Khongbuh for typing my manuscripts with utmost care and sincerely to bring out the thesis in time.

Finally, I extend hearty thanks to my beloved wife, Nyanpeni and children for bearing with me all the hardships and at the same time encouraging me to complete the work.

Shillong
The 11th Oct. 2002

(Myanbemo Kikon)