ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I am grateful to my doctoral thesis supervisor Prof. (Dr.) Nikhil Krishna De, University Professor and former Head of the Department of Geography, University of Burdwan, Burdwan. I am indebted to his invaluable guidance at every step of my research work. Without his able guidance, constructive criticism, and thought-provoking suggestions, it would not have been possible for me to complete the present work.

The researcher expresses his deep gratitude to the other respectable teachers of the Department of Geography, University of Burdwan, Burdwan viz. Dr. Ranjan Basu, Head of the Department, Prof. P.K. Sen, Prof. C. Mitra, Dr. N. Prasad, Dr. K. Bhattacharya, Dr. D. Ghosh Dey, Mrs. M. Basu, Mrs. S. Barua, Dr. K. Lahiri Dutta, who provided constant inspiration and constructive suggestions in shaping the present work.

Special thanks are due to Dr. Prithvish Nag, Director, National Atlas and Thematic Mapping Organization, Govt. of India, Salt Lake, Calcutta for giving me the kind permission for this research work. Without his kind cooperation to the use of N.A.T.M.O. library and consultation of different maps, the work could not have been completed. Moreover, his constant inspiration for the research work was a valuable booster for the scholar within the day-long hard and tedious regular office work.

Thanks are also due to Dr. R. S. Panday, Research Assistant, Dr. U. Prasad, Research Assistant, Mr. R.K. Dubey, Research Assistant, Mr. M. M. Pal, Scientific Officer, Mr. Subir Das Gupta, Geographical Assistant, Mr. Madhav Naskar, Computer and Mr. Lalit Roy, Field Assistant of N.A.T.M.O. for their valuable guidance, suggestions, help, and inspiration for the fulfillment of the study.

I am grateful to two renowned statisticians, Dr. Aditya Mohan Chattapadhye, Reader, Department of Statistics, University of Burdwan, and Dr. Ranajit Chakrabarty, Reader, Department of Business Management, Calcutta University for their valuable guidance and suggestion regarding the statistical approach of the present work.

My gratitude is also expressed to Prof. Ramen Dutta, Department of English, Asutosh College, Calcutta for the correction of the manuscript.

My thanks are due to those officials who provided maps, data, reports, books, journals, newspapers, literatures etc. to my researcher work. I wish to record my debt to them viz. Dr. R. Das, Director Bustee Cell, Calcutta Municipal Corporation, Dr. S. Bhattacharya, Director, Department of Landuse and Planning and also the Incharge of Data Bank, Calcutta Metropolitan Development Authority, Librarian, Indian Institute of Management, Calcutta, Librarian, Indian Statistical Institute, Calcutta, Director and Librarian, Institute of Local Government and Urban Studies, Calcutta, Director, Unnayan & Mrs. Keya Dasgupta of Centre for Social Science Studies Calcutta.

Sincere gratitude is also expressed to the non-teaching staff of Department of Geography, University of Burdwan for their patient assistance and cooperation. Special thanks are due to Slum & Pavement dwellers of Calcutta for their kind cooperation during field work.

I wish to place my sincere gratitude to my respectable father-in-law, Sri Manoranjan Mazumdar, Inspector (Retd.), Bureau of Applied Economics and statistics, Government of West Bengal for his valuable guidance and cooperation for the field survey.

I would also like to place my thanks to Junked Equable for typing the manuscript in Computer.

I would like to thank my husband, Mr. S. Mazumdar, Reader & Ex-Head, Department of Business Management, Calcutta University who supported and encouraged me all through by exchanging thoughts in absolutely informal way and monitoring the progress in his own way of being a teacher. I would also reserve my sincere sympathy to my little daughters for their valuable loss of not having their mother’s association during my research work.

Last but not the least, I express my heartfelt regard to my parents (Smt. Banani Roy Chowdhury and Prof. Proibir Ray Chowdhury), without whose affection, inspiration, encouragement, endurance, untiring support and blessings the work could not have been completed.
