ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I express my deep sense of gratitude to Dr. S. S. Singh, Professor, Department of Law, University of Burdwan under whose scholarly guidance and careful supervision I have completed this work. This is true that without his unfailing interest and help, the work would not have been possible.

I am also highly grateful to Prof. Aditya Chattopadhyya (Deptt. Of Statistics) and Dr. Surajit Mukhopadhay (Deptt. Of Sociology) of Burdwan University for their valuable suggestions and help in course of my empirical study on women domestic and beedi workers of Kolkata and Murshidabad of West Bengal. Sincere thanks are also due to Prof. S. K. Datta (Dept. Of Economies) and Prof. Biswajit Ghosh (Dept. of Sociology) of Burdwan University. Of course, I must pay my heart-felt thanks to Dr. A. H. Mandal, Dr. S. K. Sadhu, Dr. M. Momin, Dr. Manik Chakraborty and Mr. Dipak Das of Dept. of Law, Burdwan University for their active cooperation.

Prof. Amit Kr. Mallik, Vice-Chancellor, University of Burdwan and Prof. Ashis Kr. Banerjee, Vice-Chancellor, University of Calcutta have extended all necessary cooperation during my research study. I am highly grateful to both of them. My sincere regards are also due to Prof. I. G. Ahmed, Dean and Head, Faculty of Law, Calcutta University for his constant inspiration and Mental support. Besides, I also pay my heart feel thanks to Dr. N. K. Chakrabarti and Dr. S. S. Chatterjee of Faculty of Law, Calcutta University for their encouragement and best wishes.
My sincere thanks are due to all the staff of Hazra Law Library (C.U), Indian Law Institute Library, National Women’s Commission and Centre for Women development Study, New Delhi and Jadavpur University central Library, Kolkata. Of course, I will fail in my duty if do not express my warm thanks to Rabiuddin Ahmed, Advocate, who rendered all kinds of help and cooperation during the final printing of this work. I also express my special gratitude to Mr. Jiban Chakrabarti, P. S. to Minister of Commerce & Industry, Govt. of West Bengal, for his generous help and cooperation.

Finally, my thanks are also due to Priyabrata Bhandari & Baisakhi Bhandari who took all the pain to type this whole work in record time neatly and meticulously. I shall ever remain grateful to them for their nice cooperation.

Burdwan,

February 25, 2005.
