

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

First and foremost I bow down before “Almighty God” with solicity and imploreness to express my deepest sense of gratitude to his blessing, mercy, faithfulness and thus enabling me to accomplish this venture.

I take this opportunity to express my sincere regards and heartfelt thanks to my Advisor Dr. Sarita Khandka, Assistant Professor, Dept. of Physics, SHIATS, who has been particularly generous in providing ideas, comments, suggestions and constructive criticism. Her stimulating discussions, keen interest and cheerful personality has always been a source of inspiration during the course of study.

I especially thank to the Hon’ble V. C. Sir Most Rev. Prof. (Dr.) R. B. Lal for his valuable support.

It is my privilege and pleasure to express my deepest sense of gratitude to my Co-Advisor Prof. (Dr.) D. P. Jayapandian, Dean, School of Basic Science & Head, Department of Physics, Sam Higginbottom Institute of Agriculture, Technology & Sciences, Allahabad for his unparalleled and excellent guidance, agility, tangible support, kind co-operation and clairvoyant thinking that have brought my dissertation in this shape.

Sincere thanks are due to my SAC members, Prof. (Dr.) A. K. Rai, Professor, Dept. of Physics, University of Allahabad and also Dr. Sanish Thomas, Assistant Professor, Dept. of Physics, SHIATS, for their valuable suggestions.

Academic life without friends is beyond imagination, I am grateful to Almighty God who has blessed me with such wonderful friends who ungrudgingly took pain and spared both time and energy so as to enable me to complete my work, with such cases especially Mr. Vipul Singh, Assistant Professor, Dept. of Physics and Mr. Vivek Singh, Assistant Professor, Dept. of Physics, SHIATS, for their moral support and persistent help during the course of this study.

I express my esteemed heartfelt thanks to my brother Dr. Ashwani Kumar, Associate Professor, Department of Plant Protection, SHIATS, Allahabad, for his constant help and affectionate encouragement.

I extend my thankfulness and regards to Mr. Sandeep Kanojia, Assistant of Dean, for their co-operation throughout the task.

I found no rhetorical gems from the ocean of words to express my heartfelt sense of gratitude to my mother Mrs. Suman Masih for my higher education, spring of inspiration and sacrifices since I saw light on this earth.

Words fail to express my deep gratitude from the depth of my heart for my loving sisters Archana Masih, Anupam Masih and Anuja Masih who provided me relentless encouragement, prayers, pure love, unmatched affection that made this work to reach its fruitful destination.

In the end, I would like to thank all my friends & staff for their unrestrained help and cheerful company.

Thank You
