Acknowledgement

At the outset, I would like to express my gratefulness to all my well-wishers, who constantly encouraged me to continue this work with high spirit. Although it is not practicable to acknowledge everyone individually, but there are a few who deserve special mention.

I avail this splendid opportunity to express my profound gratitude and indebtedness to my guide Dr. Bapukan Choudhury, Reader, Department of Anthropology, Gauhati University, Guwahati for his constant guidance, constructive criticism and providing me with all sorts of help, without which the present study would not have been completed. Inspite of his busy schedule, he was ever ready to extend his invaluable cooperation. I also express my sincere thanks to him for helping me in broadening my knowledge in various other fields of Anthropology.

I would like to express my gratitude to Prof. A.N.M. Irshad Ali, Professor, Department of Anthropology, Gauhati University, for his inspiration and encouragement in carrying out this work.

I am grateful to Professor Remika Das, Head of the Department of Anthropology, Gauhati University, Guwahati for extending me all necessary helps in the department to carry out my study.

I would like to take this opportunity to express my profound gratitude to Professor H.C. Sharma, Department of Anthropology, Gauhati University for his valuable suggestion.

Cordial thanks are extended to Dr. S.K. Roy, Curator, Anthropological Museum, Gauhati University for his valuable suggestions and inspiration.
I am indebted to all the interpreters who volunteered their services in communicating with the respondents and the amount of pains taken by them while collecting data.

The cooperation, hospitality and active support of the household respondents during the field work is thankfully acknowledged.

I owe special debts of thanks to Sri Christobin Rymbai, a respectable person in Jowai, Dr. Tongpier, Lecturer, Department of Philosophy, NEHU, Shillong, Dr. P. Passah, Reader, Department of Economics, NEHU, Shillong, Sri Wanjepbai Lakiang, Ward Commissioner, Jowai, Sri Tierod Passah, Assistant Architect, P.W.D., Meghalaya, for providing me with various information about the social and cultural aspects of the Jaintias.

A deep sense of gratitude is reserved for my maternal uncle and aunt for the constant encouragement and support I enjoyed from them.

Finally, I would like to express my deepest gratitude to my parents, who are my strength and whose constant help, inspiration, support and blessings enabled me to complete my research work.

This acknowledgement cannot be concluded without expressing appreciation for the constant support and encouragement which I received from my brothers, sister and cousin sisters, in conducting the study.

Department of Anthropology
Gauhati University

The 30th Dec, 1995.

MITALI CHAKRABARTY

MITALI CHAKRABARTY