ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The thesis is completed under the guidance and supervision of Dr. M.M. Das, Reader in Geography, Gauhati University. I express my deep sense of gratitude to him for his able guidance, thorough supervision and sincere involvement in every step of my work. I owe a debt of gratitude to Professor M. Barthakur, Professor M. Taher, Professor H.N. Sharma, Dr. N.N. Bhattacharyya and Dr. R. Barman from all of whom I received inspiration and suggestions on many occasions.

I must be grateful to my parents for their constant inspiration to carry on my research work.

Thanks are also due to my friend Sri A.K. Bhagabati, Ph.D. Research Fellow in the Department of Geography, Gauhati University. I must also remember with thanks the goodwill and help that I received from Sri Bhupen Goswami, Lecturer in Geography, Goalpara College.

I shall fail in my duty if I do not acknowledge the cordial help extended to me by the officials of various Government offices, such as the Office of the Statistics and Economics, Barpeta, the Deputy Commissioner's Office, Guwahati, Directorate of Land Records, Guwahati, Offices of the Sub-Deputy Collectors of the Barpeta District and other Organisations and individuals in supplying necessary data and information.

I am thankful to Sri U.N. Roychoudhury for helping me in the cartographic works. I must express my thanks to Sri Kalicharan Das, who carefully typed the thesis, and also to Sri L.K. Das for his help and co-operation.
