ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The author wishes to record his gratitude to numerous persons, who have encouraged him to undertake, as also, to complete the work.

First of all, the author expresses his deep sense of gratitude to Dr. Minodhar Barthakur, Professor and Head of the Department of Geography, Gauhati University, under whose guidance the work was ably completed. It is for his invaluable guidance, critical comments and observations, and careful examination of the earlier drafts, that the work has taken its present shape.

It is also my pleasure to thank Bro. M. G. Shannon, Principal of St. Edmund's College, Shillong, for granting permission and constantly encouraging me to complete this research work.

Considerable help in collecting secondary data and research materials was obtained from Shri L. N. Dutta, Statistical Officer of the Directorate of Economics and Statistics, Govt. of Assam, Dr. N. K. Baruah, Chief of Division, Monitoring and Evaluation, Planning and Development Department, Govt. of Assam, Mr. D. N. Chakravarty, Director of Information and Public Relations, North Eastern Council Secretariat, Shillong, Mr. H. N. Dutta of the District Transport Office, Gauhati, and several Officers and Staff of the Statistical and Agriculture Departments, Govt. of Assam. To each of them I express my heartfelt thanks.
The teaching staff of the Departments of Geography of the Gauhati University and the North-Eastern Hill University deserve praise for encouraging me in my work.

I am also grateful to Mr. Sansing Kharkongor, Lecturer in St. Edmund's College, Shillong, Ms. Supriya Sarkar, Research Scholar of Gauhati University, and Fr. M.C. Thomas of the Catholic Church at Nongthymmai, Shillong, who have helped me in numerous ways in procuring research materials.

I am very thankful to Mr. Nripendra Ch. Das of the Assam Secretariat (Civil), Dispur (Gauhati), who has typed the final version of the Thesis so efficiently.

It will be in the fitness of things to express my love and sympathies to my parents, brothers and sisters, who have endured with all my problems at different stages of my work.

Also, I express my gratitude to all who directly or indirectly helped and encouraged me to complete the project.

Shillong-14,
The 16th March, 1983.
