ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I take the privilege to acknowledge my profound appreciation and heartfelt gratitude to Dr. R. Barman, Professor and Head of the Department of Geography, Gauhati University for his able guidance, supervision and painstaking job of organisation and correction in the work.

My thanks are due to Professor M. M. Das, Professor H. N. Sharma, Professor M. Taher, Dr. A. K. Bhagabati, Dr. A. K. Bora, Mr. B. K. Kar and others of the department of Geography for offering their kind assistance, and valuable and enthused suggestions while doing the work.

I am deeply indebted to Mr. T. Changmai, Assistant Engineer in the Department of E & D, Govt. of Assam and his staff members at Dibrugarh, for their help in supplying relevant data and maps. I shall remain ever grateful to Mr. A. K. Kalita and some of his colleagues of the Brahmaputra Board at Guwahati and Dibrugarh for helping me in the success of the work. The members of the Dibrugarh Unit of E & D (Investigation), Department of the Central Water Commission, along with the members of the Revenue Department and sub-divisional office at Chapakhowa deserve my hearty thanks and gratitude for their effective assistance in many respects of the work.

I thank Mr. K. C. Das for carefully typing the thesis, Mr. U. N. Roychoudhury for cartographic works and Mr. B. Ali for sincerely helping in the work of Xeroxing of maps and diagrams, etc.

I am grateful to Mr. Niranjan Borgohain who accompanied me during the troublesome field work at remote places of the Sadiya Region. I also thank the Principal of the Tinsukia College and especially, my family members for extending help in many respects. Lastly, I extend due respect and gratitude to all those whose helps and co-operation will be valuable and precious for all the time to come before me.

Date: 27.12.97
Place: Tinsukia

(Bhuban Gogoi)