ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I am extremely grateful to parent-guide Dr. Satyendrenarayan Goswami, Robindranath Tagore Professor and Head, Department of Modern Indian Languages, Gauhati University. It is his painstaking supervision, guidance, sincere encouragement, constructive criticism and helpful suggestions for improvement in each and every stage are responsible for the completion of the present work. I very sincerely regret that I could not coin words to express my deep sense of gratitude to him.

It is the Mishing people of different parts of Assam, specially Jonai-Dhemaji, Baligaon and Majuli to whom I owe the greatest debt for their tremendous help and co-operation in my field investigation. I always remember the names of Dr. Ganesh Pegu, Sri Komison Mili, Sri Gourisankar Dole, Sri Muhiram Patir and their family members who hosted me besides Sri Gangaprasad Pegu, Sri Bandhu Ram Chungkurang, Sri Ram Kr. Dole, Sri Deborah Pegu etc. for their constant and unhesitating response to my needs.

Words fail to express my deep sense of gratitude to all the aforesaid informants and Sri Diram Kumbang, Sri Boleswar Mili, Sri Pratap Pao, Sri Dharma Kanta Mili, Sri Khogen Pegu and Biren Mili for their unhesitating co-operation and timely help. I am also thankful to Sri T.R. Taid, Director of ABILAC for his valuable suggestions in my research.
The author also owes a deep sense of gratitude to the following learned Scholars for their encouraging words and suggestions, namely Dr. Bani Kanta Sarma, Professor in M.I.L. Dept., Dr. Nabin Ch. Sarma, Reader in Folk-lore Research Dept., Dr. Birendranath Datta, Professor and Head, Folk-lore Research Dept., Dr. Rohini Kr. Mahanta, Professor and Head, Dept. of Linguistics, Dr. Madhu Ram Boro, Lecturer of Linguistics Dept., Dr. Sailen Bharali, Reader in Assamese, G.U., Dr. Umesh Deka, Lecturer in Assamese, G.U., Mrs. (Dr.) Lilabati Saikia, Reader in Assamese, Dr. Ramesh Pathak, Lecturer, Cotton College, and Dr. Pramod Ch. Bhattacharyya, Ex-retired Principal of B. Barooah College.

I also wish to express my gratitude to all of my co-Research Scholars, among whom Sri Gajendra Adhikary, Sri Aswini Borah, Sri Madhab Talukdar, Sri Ganesh Ch. Mahanta deserve special mention.

I am specially indebted to Miss Bijoylakshmi Bora for her sincere help and co-operation in copying some manuscript besides her some of the staff members of M.S. College, Jonai namely Sri Harakanta Pegu, Sri Jibesh Dole, Sri Beula Pegu, Mrs. Sukhalata Phukan etc. are thankful for their help.

I shall be failing in my duty if I do not express my deep sense of gratitude to my parents along with my brothers and sisters, who help me lot in my research both mentally and spiritually.
The completion of my investigation was made possible only for a Junior Research Fellowship (NET : UGC) awarded to me for the period 1987-1992. The UGC authority really deserves my hearty thanks for this financial support. I am also grateful to the Gauhati University for allowing me to undertake this research in this University as a regular Research Scholar.

My special thanks are due to the authority of 'Computer Academy & Professional Software', R.G. Baruah Rd., Guwahati-3, who have heartedly undertaken the responsibility of computer softwaring this thesis.
