ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

At first, I express my deep sense of gratitude to my revered supervisor Dr. Rajendra Nath Sarma, M.A., Ph.D., Mīmāṃsā-Vyākaraṇa-Śāstri, Professor and Head of the Department of Sanskrit, Gauhati University for his constant guidance, help, kind suggestion, encouragement and inspiration during the period of my study and the preparation of the present dissertation. I express my indebtedness to him.

I am very much grateful to my teachers Professor Ashok Kumar Goswami, Professor Apurba Chandra Barthakuria, Prof. Nalini Ranjan Sarma, and Prof. Thaneswar Sarma and other teachers of the Department of Sanskrit, G.U. for their valuable advice offered to me in many respects.

I am also ever grateful to my father and mother for their kind help, and inspiration in undertaking the present work.

I am also grateful to late A.C. Goswami, former Principal and Dr. R.C. Sarma, Principal, Nirmal Haloi College for their kind help and inspiration in doing the work.
My lot of thanks are also due to my esteemed colleagues Sri Monoj Kr. Sarma, Sri Umesh Chandra Misra, Sri Tarun Chandra Bhagabati and Sri Kishore Sarma for their sincere help and inspiration during the period of my research.

I express my gratitude to the authorities and staff of K.K. Handique Library, Gauhati University, for their kind help in providing me with full Library facilities.

I heartily acknowledge the help and encouragements received from Mrs. Jamini Devi, M.A., Kavya Jastri, and Sri Pradip Kumar Goswami, B.A.(Hons) during the period of my present work.

I acknowledge, with thanks, the help offered to me by my wife Sri Dipika Goswami in completing the present research work.

Finally, I also thank Mr. Kalicharan Das, who took trouble in typing the thesis with care and sincerity within a very short time.

(P.C. Goswami)
