The thesis entitled "Prevention and control of Corruption in Assam with special reference to the 1947 Act" is based on a vivid study of this burning issue with which the public servants are so entangled. The work deals mainly with corruption of public servants. Prevalence of corruption never fails to evoke a gushing torrent of abuse, even from the most docile. This canker is fast destroying our economy and our morale. So, I feel it is high time to analyse the problem of corruption in respect of its causations and cures and expose their inadequacies. This public calamity is mighty leveller and I believe, there are occasions when any, even the slightest chance of doing good, must be laid hold on even by the most inconconsiderable person.

I wish to express my sincere gratitude to Sri K.N.Sarma, Ex-Dean of Faculty of Law, Gauhati University for his valuable guidance in conducting the study and constructive criticism in preparing the manuscript.

I extend my grateful thanks to the staff of the libraries of the Central Administrative Tribunal, Gauhati High Court, Government Law College, Assembly, and the Staff Administrative College, Guwahati for providing me the facilities thereof to utilise for my work.

I gratefully acknowledge the help of the staff of the Gauhati University Law Library.

Finally I would be failing in my duty, if I do not place on record, my thanks to my wife Leena Dutta and my sons Prinabh and Tarunabh for the sacrifices made by them during the period of my research and but for whose co-operation it would not have been completed.
