ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I would like to acknowledge with a deep sense of gratitude to those who helped me in doing this research work. First and foremost is my great teacher Prof. B.C. Kar, Professor of Education, Gauhati University, Assam, under whose able guidance and inspiration the work was carried out.

I am grateful to my respondents in the two villages, who have willingly answered to all my questions inspite of their tight schedule of daily works. Without their co-operation and interest my research would not have been possible. More particularly to Shri Thonglen Singh of Toubul and Shri Babu Singh of Ngakohroupokpi, who have extended me all sorts of help and warm hospitality during my field work in their villages from October 1974 to July 1975.

I wish to thank the University Grants Commission and the Government of Manipur for awarding fellowship and granting me study leave.

I am also grateful to Prof. Kishun Singh of G.P. Womens' College, Imphal for reading some portion of the thesis with a critical appraisal.

Lastly, I owe a very special debt of gratitude to my loving wife Indu, her sense of responsibility during my long absence from home provided the necessary balance of mind to my scholarly work.

The 20th February, 1978
