ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

At the very outset I would like to express my deep sense of gratitude and sincere appreciation to Prof. Lutfun Rasul Saikia, Head of the Department of Education, Gauhati University for her supervision and constant guidance throughout this work.

I am also grateful to The Deputy Secretary, UGC, NERO who had awarded the Teacher fellowship Award for three years which was valuable for me to complete this work.

I am also grateful to the Block Elementary Education Officers and the Statistical Assistants of different blocks of the district for their assistance to give the necessary data.

I am also grateful to the Head masters and Assistant teachers of all the sample schools for their active cooperation to collect the necessary data about school and drop-out.

This research work involved many months spent in various libraries located in the district. I extent my thanks to the library staff of the K.K.Handique Library, G.U., Library of the Assam Institute of research for Tribals and Scheduled Castes, Guwahati, Library of the OKDI, Library Department of Education, G.U. for their assistance in providing me with the necessary materials.

I am also greatly indebted to my mother Mrs. Renu Patowary for her encouragement and help, to my husband Mr. Tapan Bhuyan for his active co-operation to collect data in the field work, to my two and half years old son who never disturbed me at the time of writing the research report.

I also wish to extend my sincere gratitude and thanks to all the persons and institutions who have helped me directly or indirectly to meet the drop-outs and their parents and the respondents who co-operated with me and contributed to this study.

In preparing the report, many publications of other researchers and institutions have liberally been used. Care has been taken to acknowledge the sources and give specific credit for all the data so presented in this work. Any omission is purely out of inadvertence.

Prativa Patowary

(Prativa Patowary)