ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I am deeply indebted to Dr. Jose T. Payyappilly, Professor, School of Management Studies, Cochin University of Science and Technology under whose keen supervision this study was conducted.

Dr. K.C. Sankaranarayanan, Professor and Head, Department of Applied Economics deserves special thanks for his unreserved help throughout the process of this study.

Thanks are due to many others whose generous help has made this study possible. I gratefully remember: Bishop Colin Campbell D.D., President, St. Francis Xavier University, Antigonish, Canada; Dr. V. George Mathew, Professor, Department of Psychology, University of Kerala; Dr. R.K. Hebsur, Professor and Head, Department of Research Methodology and Deputy Director, Tata Institute of Social Sciences (TISS), Bombay; Mr. P. Ramachandran, Professor (Rtd.), Tiss, Bombay and Mr. J.C. Sharma, Reader and Head, Electronic Data Processing Section, Tiss, Bombay.

I am much obliged to Fr. Jose Alex CMI, Principal, and all the members of the faculty, Rajagiri College of Social Sciences, Kalamassery for their continuous encouragement and generous help.

I thankfully remember all the principals and students of the colleges in Ernakulam District who very willingly cooperated in the collection of the data for this study.

I am grateful to all the members of the faculty, the librarian and the personnel in the office of the Department of Applied Economics and others in the various offices of the Cochin University of Science and Technology for the efficient assistance given to me. The typing of the report was done with good care by Mrs. V. Alamma.

K.V. Varghese.