CONTENTS

Preface
Abbreviations

Chapter I - Introduction 1-10
Chapter II – Problems in State Actions 11-17
Chapter III-The Constitutional Torts 18-70
Chapter IV - Remedies available Through Writ Petition 71-206

(i) Origin, Purpose and Proceeding of the writ
   a) Different types of writs
   b) Origin and development of writs in India

(ii) Remedies available through writ courts

(iii) Remedy in case of gross human rights violation
   a) Encounter deaths
   b) Custodial deaths
   c) Custodial rape and atrocities against women
   d) Custodial torture
   e) Illegal arrest and detention
   f) Not protecting citizen from riot
   g) Breach of duty by public administration
      1. Failure to take precautionary measure
      2. Not providing timely medical aid
      3. Not protecting the right of passengers
      4. Not protecting the prisoners from co-accused
      5. Negligence of the officers of the state

(iv) Non –Compliance of the directions of the court
   a) Handcuffing
   b) Failure to follow formalities while arresting

(v) Conclusion

(vi) Suggestion
Chapter V. Remedy Available Through Civil Courts

(i) Remedy in private law for breach of duty

(ii) Remedy in Public law for breach of duty

1. Development of State Liability in India

A. The Vedic Period
B. The Mughal Period
C. The British Period
   (i) Liability of the East India Company in 1831
   (ii) P&O Steam Navigation case and Government Of India Act 1858
   (iii) Divergent views from P &O’s Case
   (iv) Government of India Act 1915 and the liability of the state
   (v) Government of India Act 1935 and the State liability
   (vi) Constitutional Provision for fixing state liability
   (vii) Article 300 and its interpretation.

D. Present Method of determining state liability
   (i) Liability on the ground of Non-sovereign function
   (ii) Exemption from liability on the ground of Sovereign function

E. Conclusion

2 Law Relating To State Liability in the U.K. the U.S.A & FRANCE

A. Law relating to state liability in England
   (ii) Merits of English legal system

B. Law relating to state liability in U.S.A
   (i) The Federal Tort Claims Act 1946
   (ii) Merits of the system
   (iii) Defects of the system
C. Law Relating to state liability in France

(i) Development of state liability in France
(ii) French doctrine of state liability
(iii) Merits of French Conseil d' Etat
(iv) Conclusion
(v) Suggestion

Chapter VI - Remedies Available Through Sessions Court 328-397

(i) Development of Criminal Law in India
   a) Vedic Period
   b) Mughal Period
   c) British period
(ii) Implementation mechanism through courts
   a) Compensatory
   b) Precautionary
(iii) Remedy through Session Court
   a) Abuse of power
   b) Custodial death
   c) Custodial torture
   d) Atrocities against the women
(iv) Conclusion
(v) Suggestions

Chapter VII - Remedies available through NHRC 398-438

(i) Protection of Human rights Act
(ii) Brief Report about the Steps taken by NHRC (iii) Excesses of enforcement agencies
   a) Custodial deaths
   b) Disappearance
   c) Encounter deaths
   d) Failure in providing medical aid
   e) Abuse of power
   f) Atrocities against women
(iv) Conclusion
(v) Suggestion

Chapter VIII Conclusion & Suggestions 439-460
An Alternative Implementation Mechanism