ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The role of the research supervisor is very important as his/her help starts from the day of the “idea” of the research conceived and continues throughout the life of the research, till it comes to the final stage. He/she provides the ideology, design and methodology to the research work and dedicates valuable and considerable time. I am profoundly grateful to my research guide, Dr. Niru Hazarika, Department of Political Science, Gauhati University, for her constant encouragement and untiring guidance and supervision of my research work. Her constructive criticism and scholarly guidance has enabled me to complete the work without which it would not have been possible. I must express my heartfelt gratitude to other teachers of the Department of Political Science, Gauhati University.

I am greatly indebted to the librarians and staff of the following libraries—K.K Handique Library of the Gauhati University, Omeo Kumar Das Institute of Social Science and Research, Gauhati, Women Studies Centre, Gauhati University, Assam Legislative Assembly Library, Dispur, Assembly Secretariat, Dispur. I am thankful to the Election Department, Government of Assam for their cooperation and help extended to me while consulting the records and for providing facilities for study. I am also grateful to the Assembly Security Office for their kind cooperation and help in the entrance to the Assembly.

In the course of the study, a few woman legislators of the past namely, Kamal Kumari Barua, Rebati Das, Bijoya Chakraborty, Renuka Debi Barkataky, Pranita Talukdar, Basanti Sarma and others were interviewed. I must express my sincere thanks and gratefulness to these woman leaders for kindly bearing with me and providing me with valuable information and their experiences on the subject of the study. I am also thankful to the woman Ministers and Members of the 11th Assembly for their cooperation in supplying information about their political life inspite of their busy schedule. So, I am greatly indebted to all the woman legislators and their relatives who responded to the Questionnaire by supplying valuable information without which this work would not have been complete.

I take the opportunity of expressing my thankfulness to all the people who helped me in various ways in collecting materials from the different places of Assam. I am also thankful to the State Archives of Assam, Dispur for giving me access to consult the connected materials in their respective Library.

I am also indebted to the University Grants Commission for awarding me a Teacher Fellowship for this project with effect from 1st September 2004 for a period of two years. I am also thankful to the College authorities of Lanka Mahavidyalaya for allowing me to avail myself of the Fellowship granted to me.

Last, but not least my indebtedness to all those who are directly or indirectly connected with the preparation of the Thesis. I am also thankful to my family members and my husband who always inspired me in every possible ways
