Acknowledgements

It is a pleasure to acknowledge my indebtedness and gratitude to my teacher, Professor (Dr.) Siddheswar Saikia, M.A., Ph.D., A.I.E. (London), of the Department of Education, Gauhati University, under whose general supervision this thesis has been prepared. But for his keen interest, able guidance, and constant encouragement, it would not have been possible for me to complete my work.

I am also grateful to Principal T.K. Baruah, M.A., of Pragjyotish College, Guwahati, to Dr. J. Bharali and Shri B.D. Phukan, Academic Officers of the Board of Secondary Education, Assam, Guwahati, and to Shri B. Das of the Statistical Unit of Gauhati University for their kind help in my work.

I owe my sincere thanks to all the Principals and Head Masters, and lecturers of different colleges, and all others who gladly offered their valuable opinions and assistance for the purpose of my work.

I also acknowledge the affectionate help offered me in my work by my father, Shri N.N. Sobhapondit, and my younger brothers, Sanjiv and Rajiv, and my elder daughter, Tanoshi. I shall also fondly cherish the kind help given me by Shri Prabin Bora,
M.Tech, of Assam Engineering College, Guwahati, and by Shri Bhaben Bora, B.E., an engineer of the State Electricity Board, Assam, Guwahati, in completing my work.

I must also thank the Librarians and the Staff of the K.K. Handique Library, Gauhati University; Madras University Library; Pragjyotish College Library, Guwahati; Dibrugarh University Library, Dibrugarh; the Secretariat Library, Assam Secretariat, Dispur, Guwahati, and the Librarians-in-Charge of the Directorates of Statistics and Public Instruction, Assam, Guwahati, for their kind help and co-operation in completing my work.

I also express my warm appreciation and sincere thanks for Shri S.K. Das for the neat typing of the thesis.
