Acknowledgement

This is to express my deep sense of gratitude to my supervisor, (Mrs) Laksahira Gogoi-Chutia, M.A., Ph.D., Dip. G. L., Reader, in the Department of Sanksrit, Gauhati University, who rendered her able guidance in completing the thesis. It would not have been possible for me to complete such a project without her inspiration and advice. I am extremely grateful to her.

I convey my gratitude to the authorities of Sanskrit Sanjivani Sahitya Library, Nalbari, the Library of Kāmarūpa Anusandhāna Samiti and the Library of the Department of Historical and Antiquarian Studies, Assam for their kind help. I am also grateful to the staff and authority of the Library of Gauhati University for their help and co-operation offered to me during my research work.

I am extremely grateful to the scholars whose works I have studied and utilised for preparing the present dissertation.

I pay my sincere thank to my kids Barsha and Pritam for their co-operation. I am also grateful to my parents, Smt. Abha Das and Sri Hemendra Kumar Das and all my well-wishers for their kind advice. It will be incomplete if I donot acknowledge Dr. Prabodh Bora, Asst. Prof., College of Veterinary Science, Assam Agricultural University, for his valuable suggestions.

I am also thankful to the management of the Academy Prinmit Jangalbari, more particularly Sri Deepak Das, Kumari Biju Das and Jugal Chandra, who have helped me in typing out the papers and printing the cover, and in many other ways.

And above all, I would like to express my gratitude to my husband, Khanindra Talukdar who inspired and encouraged me every now and then to complete this work.
