ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Any sincere work, impeccable opinion, honest contribution or imperishable obligation goes unnoticed till it is recognized. In completion of this arduous work besides survey of relevant literature, preparation of questionnaire and method of conducting interview was the first step to be put in correct direction and in a result oriented manner which was masterly guided by my reverend guides, Dr. M. Momin, Professor, and Dr. S. K. Tiwari, Reader, Department of Law, University of Burdwan. For their consistent inspiration, counselling, supervision and tiring job of going through the draft of thesis I will remain ever grateful to them.

I express my sincere gratitude to Dr. Arup Chattopadhyay, Professor and Dean, Faculty of Arts, Commerce, Law etc. University of Burdwan.

I feel highly obliged for having completed this thesis under the considerate and scholastic patronage of Prof. (Dr.) Manik Chackroborty, Head, Department of Law, University of Burdwan. His teaching and treatment have continued enlightening my mind in this field.

I am highly obliged to Prof. (Dr.) Shiv Sahay Singh, the former Head of Department (Law), University of Burdwan without whose inspiration and blessing completion of this work would not have been possible.
I will remain grateful to the patronage shown by Dr. Badre Alam Khan, Principal, C M Law College, Darbhanga, Bihar for his promising guidance and advices towards the completion of this work.

I will remain ever grateful to Dr. Dinesh Kumar Pradhan, Munsif, Civil Court, Darbhanga, Bihar for his valuable guidance which enabled me to have access to various court records and web sites.

The valuable guidance, advices and suggestions of Dr, Mithilesh Vishwakarma, Principal, Dausa Law College, Dausa (Rajasthan) will ever remain with me without which completion of such a work would not have been possible.

I express my sincere gratitude to the staff of the C M Law College, Darbhanga, specially Shri Surendra Kumar Jha, Shri Lalit Chandra Jha and Bhola Babu for providing me all the support and help from college administration.

I am sincerely grateful to senior advocates Shri Amarendra Kumar Choudhary, Shri Narendra Narayan Singh, Shri T K Sen, Shri Ramakant Lal, Shri Ravindra Kumar Shrivastwa, Shri Ashok Kumar Singh, Shri Binay Kumar Singh, Shri Anil Kumar Singh, Shri Amber Imam Hashami, Smt. Mridula Singh, Smt. Babita Kumari Smt. Kiran Kumari and the former Public Prosecutor Shri Satya Narayan Yadav and the present Public Prosecutor Shri Shyam Kishore Pradhan for sharing different valuable information in connection with the research work.
I express my gratitude to the all other advocates of the Darbhanga Bar Association who provided me with valuable data in connection with this work.

I am really indebted to my friend, Shri Bimalendra Kumar Singh, Shri Ravindra Kumar Singh and Shri Sunil Kumar Singh who shared with me various responsibilities by providing all types of mental, physical and moral support in the preparation of this doctoral work.

This tedious work would not have been completed in time without the consistent support and suitable working condition provided by my wife, Gauri Rani and son, Abhilash.

Lastly, I thank all the library staff of the Department of Law, University of Burdwan for providing full co-operation in searching and locating the relevant materials relating to my research work.
