ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This dissertation is an attempt of narrating the story of a veteran leader from Rayalaseema of Andhra Pradesh. This work would not have been completed without the help encouragement and good wishes of many.

My thanks are due in a large measure to Dr. K. Mallikarjuna Reddy, my guide for his expert guidance throughout and for his labor of love in being with me till the work is completed.

It gives me joy and pride to record my deep sense of gratitude to Prof. (Mrs.) R. Vasantha, Chairman, Board of Studies, Department of History, Sri Krishnadevaraya University, Anantapur for her blessings and abiding interest in me since my student's days and helping me to complete the work.

I am thankful to Prof. K. Krishna Naik, Department of History, S.K.University, Anantapur for supporting me at times of need.

I am deeply grateful to Dr. P. Sudhakar, Head of the Department of History, S.K.University, Anantapur for infusing enthusiasm and encouragement in me, despite his numerous preoccupations.

I express my thanks to Staff of the University Library.

I am grateful to my Mother and all other family members who have rendered immense assistance to me. I am thankful to all nearest, close friends and my roommates, who have helped me at every stage of the work.

... REDDEPPA .M