CONTENTS

CHAPTER I :

INTRODUCTION

(a) Early History of Assam
(b) Importance of Secondary Education
(c) Development of Secondary Education in India
(d) Development of Secondary Education in Assam

CHAPTER II :

(a) Problem and its need for study
(b) Defining the problem
(c) Title of the problem
(d) Scope and limitations

A Survey of related study in India

CHAPTER III :

Method of Study

CHAPTER IV :

Presentation and interpretation of data
Questionnaire returns and findings
Comparative study of Stagnation and Wastage in urban and rural schools
The views of the Teachers of Secondary Schools
Presentation and interpretation of data and causes of stagnation and wastage and findings and remedial measures

Section A : Causes of Stagnation and Wastage

Section B : Remedial measures
Comparative study of stagnation and wastage in Deficit and ad-hoc grant system schools (Old and Newly established schools)
Examination Reform

Result of the case study of 10 pupils of Secondary school.
CHAPTER V: SUMMARY, CONCLUSION AND RECOMMENDATIONS

Summary
Conclusion
Recommendations
Suggestions for further studies

APPENDIX

(a) Tables
(b) Bibliography
(c) Questionnaires