I express my sincere gratitude to my respected guide Dr. D.P. Barooah, honourable Vice-Chancellor of Gauhati University and Professor of Political Science (on leave) who in spite of his busy schedule helped and encouraged me at every stage of my research.

I am indebted to numerous people, organisations, offices and institutions that have helped me with data, information and suggestions for my work. In this regard, special mention may be made of Professor C.P. Bhambhri of Jawaharlal Nehru University, New Delhi, Professor A. Guha of Centre for Studies in Social Sciences, Calcutta, Professor J.B. Bhattacharjee of North Eastern Hill University, Shillong and Professor M. Neog (Retd.) of Gauhati University, for their valuable advice and suggestions. I shall be failing in my duties if I do not express a word of sincere appreciation to those generous members of public who had taken pains to answer my questionnaire or permitted interviews to me.

My special thanks are due to the Librarians and the staff concerned of the following libraries who were extremely helpful to me at the time of collection of the research materials; Library of Congress, Washington D.C., Nehru Memorial Museum Library, New Delhi, Sapru House Library, New Delhi, National Archives, New Delhi, Department of Historical and Antiquarian Studies, Guwahati, State Record Room of Assam Secretariat, Gauhati University Library, Office of the Assam Tribune, Guwahati, Office of the Shillong Observer, Shillong and The Assam Sahitya Sabha Library, Jorhat.

Besides, I would like to express my deep gratitude to the various authors whose learned works are quoted in the thesis.

Lastly, I owe a special debt to Shri Kalicharan Das of the Department of Geography, Gauhati University for his excellent typographical service and to Sri U.N. Roychaudhary, A.K. Bora, N. Chetry and S.N. Sarma of the same department for their valuable help in the preparation of various maps and diagrams.
