I

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

At the very outset, I express my immense gratitude to Professor Dr. Niru Hazarika, M.A.; Ph.D.; D. Litt. of the Department of Political Science, Gauhati University for giving me all guidance for carrying out the whole research work and preparation of my thesis.

I am extremely grateful to Sarat Chandra Sinha, former Chief Minister of Assam, for valuable information supplied me on the socio-economic conditions of the people under the Zamindari System, the historical background of the language and culture of the people of the District, and explained practical experiences as main leader of the "People's Movement".

I am also deeply thankful to my teacher Dr. (Prof) D.P. Barooah, former Vice-Chancellor of Gauhati University and the Head of the Department of Political Science who helped me with valuable and relevant records, particularly, "the Report of the States Reorganisation Commission, 1955".

I am thankful to Tarani Kanta Roy, M.A.; M.Phil; Principal Ratnapith College, Dr. Dhirendra Singh, M.A.; Ph.D.; K. Barpujari, M.A.; M.Phil; Tripad Nath Chakravorty, M.A., B. N. College, Nirodendu Roy, Principal, Chapar H. S.
II

School, for their valuable help and inspiration. I am specially thankful to Sibananda Sarma for valuable records, particularly the original copies of Memorandum submitted to the States Reorganisation Commission during its visit to Guwahati and Dhubri and for valuable information of other sources.

I am indebted to libraries – the District Library, Dhubri; K.K. Handique Library, Gauhati University; Department of Historical and Antiquarian Studies, Guwahati; Assam Legislative Assembly Library, Dispur; Assam Pradesh Congress Committee Library, Hedayetpur, Guwahati; Assam State Archive, Dispur; Apurba Sinha Trust Library, Ratnapith College, Chapar; National Library, Calcutta; from where I have collected valuable materials, statistics and information.

I am also thankful to IMPRESSION, Hedayetpur, Guwahati-3, for essential works in the preparation of the research work and typing the manuscript with great care.

At last, my ceaseless thanks to my wife Anjuara who with great patience, continuously encouraged me and actively assist me to my research work from beginning to the ends.

The 29th December, 1997. Barkatullah Khan