ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This piece of research work was encouraged and given right and helpful direction by the supervision and guidance of Dr. Pradip Chandra Das, Reader in Education, Gauhati University.

At the very outset I acknowledge with best regards indebtedness to him under whose constructive criticism, creative suggestion, affectionate and able guidance and helpful cooperation I could complete this piece of research work.

I express my gratitude to Dr. Renu Devi, retired professor and the then Head of the Department of Education, professor Dr. Nandita Sarma, the present Head of the Department of Education and retired professor Tulshi Das who encouraged me for taking up such a project.

I am very grateful to Sri Monoranjan Lahary, Ex-Principal of Govt. College of Teacher Education, Kokrajhar for his kind permission and help during the course of this study.

I also offer my heartfelt regards to Sri Mangal Singh Hazowary, Lecturer, Govt. College of Teacher Education, Kokrajhar who helped me in many respects and accompanied me during the field studies. I extend my heartfelt thanks to Sri Deep Phukan, Minati Deka, Nibedita Baruah who have been the source of encouragement to me.

I am also highly indebted and grateful to the guardians, parents and other Boro and Rabha people of Kokrajhar district for their kind and friendly gesture and kind help they extended to me during my field studies.

I express my heartfelt gratitude and thanks to Sri A. Sarma, Academic Section, Gauhati University for his advice and encouragement for completing and submitting the thesis.

I also offer my thanks to Sri Samarendra Brahma, (Typist), Barendra Brahma (informant) who helped me by typing the research papers as well as informants during the time of my field work on the subject.

I am very thankful to Sri J. Brahma, Rahul, Kajol and Ghosh who computerised the thesis at a very short time. Further I extend my thanks to my esteem colleagues and well wishes for their constant encouragement and inspiration.

Dated
Govt. College of Teacher Education
Kokrajhar, Assam

(MISS BHADRA PHUKAN)